Before attempting to make the report for this year, you must consult the Record of your Court and find out the exact financial standing (no guess work) of each member in the Court.

If a member was suspended during the last year or any previous year and wished to be reinstated, before accepting the member back into the Court you must collect a reinstatement fee of $15.00. When you enter their name on the report, you must invariably include the reinstatement fee assessment.

BEAR IN MIND that whenever suspended members re-enter the Court you must send the reinstatement fee of $15.00.
