

Capacity/Civil Competency:

Assess cognitive, psychological, and functional capacity to make various legal, medical, and personal decisions. This can include individual's rights to make decisions generally, or to more specific issues like finances. Provide assessment and opinion regarding capacity/competency through document review, psychological testing, clinical interview of individuals, and interview of collateral sources.