The Lucky Bag

RICHMOND COUNCIL, NAVY LEAGUE OF THE UNITED STATES

COME JOIN US FOR AN EXCITING TOUR OF THE SMITHSONIAN'S STEVEN F. UDVAR-HAZY CENTER AIR & SPACE NATIONAL MUSEUM ON SATURDAY FEBRUARY 24, 2018

Navy League Members, if you've never been to this outstanding museum, we urge you to sign up for what promises to be a memorable full-day's outing.

Located in Chantilly, Virginia, the Steven F. Udvar-Hazy Center, combined with its partner the Smithsonian National Air and Space Museum on the National Mall, comprise the most popular museum in the United States, attracting eight million visitors a year.

The museum is comprised of two massive hangars where dozens of aircraft, spacecraft, rockets, satellites and missiles are suspended from the ceilings.

You will see a Concord, a SR-71 Blackbird, the Enola Gay, the Space Shuttle Discovery and other space artifacts.

A more recent addition to the complex is a third hangar where scientists and engineers work to restore planes and spacecraft for the massive collection.

The observation tower is open on the 7th floor to view airplanes landing and taking off at Dulles. The 6th floor has displays and consoles to hear air traffic controllers at work.

All visitors will be accompanied by a docent to enrich your experiences.

A museum store will appeal to many desiring to take away a reminder of their visit. A museum restaurant is also available. ✍

Space Shuttle Discovery, mounted atop a NASA Shuttle Carrier Aircraft, flies over the Steven F. Udvar-Hazy Center where it is now on permanent display
