Second Sunday in Lent

THE GATHERING

PRELUDE Joshua Fit De Battle of Jericho (Black History Month)

arr. R. Daniels

OPENING HYMN Fishers of Men CALL TO WORSHIP

(see insert)

The Lord is merciful and gracious, slow to anger and abounding in love.

Jesus calls us to be his disciples.

We take up the cross to follow him. Let us worship God.

UNISON PRAYER OF CONFESSION

God our Redeemer, we confess that we are people of ashes and dust.
We join the parade and shout hosanna,
then deny our Lord in his hour of need.
We wave the palms and sing praise,
then hand our Savior over to die.

Forgive us, God of grace.
Our lives are in your hand—
deliver us from evil.
Save us, by your steadfast love;
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE SECOND SUNDAY OF LENT

I fill my mind with positive imaginings, I see my life as it is meant to be: good and beautiful.

"Just imagine!" We often say this when describing something beyond our expectations. "Just imagine!"

In truth, we are imagining nonstop from morning until night. The challenge is to make careful, conscious selections each day from the possible imaginings.

We experience love, joy, and abundance by imagining with perfect assurance that we will experience those qualities. "Everything that is manifest," Charles Fillmore writes in Keep a True Lent," was first a mental picture and was brought into expression by this forming power." Our task is to be sure that what we imagine is inspired by Spirit within us. By filling our minds with the imaginings of Spirit, we see—and—experience—our lives as good and beautiful.
