

GI- Maps

- Physical map: shows the physical features of the earth: mountains, deserts, forests
- Political map: shows the boundaries of countries, cities, and capitals
- Climate map: shows temperature and climate for regions
- Population Density Map: Shows the number of people per square mile

Sample Questions

1. Which feature would most likely be shown on a physical map?

- (1) population density
- (2) vegetation zones
- (3) climate
- (4) mountain ranges

2. Which feature would most often be shown on a political map?

- (1) topography
- (2) type of climate
- (3) capital cities
- (4) elevation