

Navajo Lake CTR Sept 26, 2020
Leisure Division ONLY on Saturday, Sept 26 at 8:00am near Aztec, NM Rider Limit: 30

The San Juan Valley Trail Riders invites you to be part of NATRC history. Come ride the 46th annual Navajo Lake Ride CTR, one the longest continuously held rides in NATRC history. This ride will traverse varied terrain of mesas, arroyos, beautiful rock formations and pinon forest in the spectacularly scenic area around the Navajo Lake Dam.

Directions to Camp: The camp is located on NM State Hwy. 539 approximately ¾ mile south of Navajo Dam. When approaching from Albuquerque and Bloomfield, travel east on U. S. 64 to about mile 89, then turn north (left) on NM 539; 5 miles to camp. From Eastern slope Colorado, take CO 172 south through Ignacio to NM 511 and south to Navajo Dam, then south on NM 539 to camp. From western Colorado, go to Durango, head south on Hwy. 550 towards Aztec, NM. Just as you enter Aztec, turn left on NM 173 until it ends at a T. (about 18 miles). At the T go left on 511 which will take you to the top of the dam, where you will have to do a turn around in the parking area to head across the top of the dam. Go up a hill and you'll see camp on your right.

Camping for the Leisure ride is not required, but you are welcome to camp on Friday night or Saturday night if you want.

Camp Facilities: Please bring your own water for your horse, if you camp.

Horse water will be provided on the trail during the ride. Bring your own drinking water.

Nights are usually cool so plan to blanket your horse.

Two restaurants and a small grocery store are located 8 miles from camp. Emergency Phone: Navajo Lake Visitor Center 505-632-2278 (day) or 505-632-2207 (night). We WILL allow the 12x12 portables panel pens only.

Rules: This ride will be conducted under current NATRC rules. We will be offering the Distance Only class for those of you who wish to complete the ride for mileage only. New Mexico state law requires that out-of-state horses have current Coggins and health papers.

Schedule: A-Riders and B-Riders, vet check-in starts at 2 p.m. until dark on Friday, May 8, 2020. A special First Time Competitor meeting will be held after briefing Friday night. Each evening, the riders will be given maps and a briefing over the following day's trails.

Leisure Division check in starts at 8:00am on Saturday with riders timing out as soon as check ins are completed.

There is also a Friday evening "social hour" which starts about 4:30-5:00. Please bring a snack to share with the group!

Meals: Please bring your own meals & water.

Awards: Awards for the Leisure ride will be as soon as possible Saturday afternoon.

Judges: Diane Wingle

Leisure Division: NATRC Member is $60.00 & NON-Members $85.00. Juniors are $20.00 less for each.
