Powers' Picks #1 Newsletter Last 6 Years!!! CFB Week Zero on Page 5, CFB Best Bets Page 7

Football Season is Here!!!

One year ago, we were living in a time of great uncertainty. Most sports were cancelled and/or postponed and there were even question marks on whether or not football would be played in the fall. Eventually, most sports restarted and completed their seasons but certainly COVID-19 impacted all of our lives and we hope all of you are happy and healthy.

The 2020 football season was historic on two fronts. First, we had our best season ever in CFB as we went 39-22-1 (64%) including the bowl games. We were much more selective in our bets last season due to all the uncertainty surrounding COVID but it worked with great success in college. However, we will be back to more volume and higher-rated plays in 2021 even if there are some COVID concerns. On the negative side, we had by far our worst NFL season ever on these pages with an atrocious 19-32-1 best bet record in the regular season. Prior to this season we've never had a losing season in the NFL on these pages and we've never been below 56% in any season in the NFL!

Overall, you are 522-427-19 (55%) betting every single star-rated pick on these pages the last 6 years. You can see all our picks each year starting on page 8. In an industry where so many touts advertise guaranteed winners and 70-90% records, the reality is 55% is the best record by far out of any newsletter the last 6 years (see below) and the most successful bettors (ex: Billy Walters) of all time have hit only 57% over the long haul.

With that being said, football season is here and right now you can already bet on just about any game in football this fall. That's right every single NFL side and total have been released by Westgate in Las Vegas! You can also bet 250-plus CFB games right now plus season win totals on every team.

In this issue you will find our latest CFB power ratings and our latest bets plus our Week Zero write-ups and thoughts. Do not we release many of our plays early to VIP customers. With each passing year, we have more influence on markets and if getting the absolute best number is important to you and you can bet very early in the week, VIP might be worth your while this season. It is $599 and it is for all sports for 12 months. You will receive the picks via email and text. Note we are running a CFB Week Zero Special with the lowest prices offered this summer. Those prices will go up Wednesday, September 1st.

The next issue comes out Tuesday, August 31st! Note we will be back to our normal release day of Wednesday the following week. However, because there are so many Thursday and Friday CFB games next week, we are releasing a day early!!!

Sincerely,

Brad Powers and Staff

2021 College Football Early Strength of Schedule Ratings

Strength of schedule rankings is devised by taking the average power rating of a team's 12 opponents while also factoring in where the game is played. A.O.R. = Average opponent rating. In the below list, Stanford plays the toughest schedule while Coastal Carolina plays the easiest.

Rk	Team	A.O.R.	Rk	Team	A.O.R.	Rk	Team	A.O.R.

2021 Season Win Total Projections (Power Ratings Only)

In order to come up with a season win total projection, we take the projected spread of each game and figure out a win percentage chance for that game. If you have a 90% chance to win a game, you get credit for 0.9 of a win. If you have a 20% chance to win a game, you get credit for 0.2 of a win. When you add up the win percentages for all 12 games, you get an early season win total projection.

Below is an example for Alabama this year. The Crimson Tide will be favored in all 12 games this year and 11 of those by double digits. Does that mean Alabama's season win total should be close to 12? Not when you do the correct math as you get a season win total of 10.98 for the Crimson Tide.

Games in Rotation Order HOME TEAM IN CAPS

Saturday, August 28th

Nebraska 30 ILLINOIS 24. The week zero CFB slate kicks off with a solid Big Ten matchup. Last year Illinois won 41-23 outright in Lincoln as a 17-point underdog. However, this year the Fighting Illini have a new coach in Bret Bielema. We think he's an upgrade over Lovie Smith but that's not saying much. What we do like about this Illinois team is their experience with 18 returning starters. They also have 21 Super Seniors and all of them are on scholarship (most in the Power 5). We came away impressed with what we saw in the spring starting with QB Brandon Peters. He's 6-5 220 and we think he will get drafted. The Illini also have a solid RB corps led by Chase Brown. On the other side, the Scott Frost era has been underwhelming so far (just 12-20 straight up) and there were some recent off-field allegations that could lead to distractions. On the field, this should be Frost's best team with 17 returning starters. Adrian Martinez is back for what seems like his 10th year as the starting QB. However, Martinez needs to take care of the football as his 15 lost fumbles in his career are the most in the FBS and he only has a 14-12 TD-to-INT ratio the last two years. We bet Illinois +11.5 in late May and even though the line has moved significantly, we'd still lean with them here and also have a slight lean on UNDER.

2★ UNDER 68.5 UCLA 41 Hawaii 23. We thought Todd Graham did a solid job last year winning a bowl game in his first season. This year's team returns 18 starters led by QB Chevan Cordeiro who became the first Hawaii QB to lead the team in rushing since 1991. Also keep an eye on #7 Calvin Turner who can play RB and WR and is also a dangerous return man. On the other side, Chip Kelly's tenure has been a disappointment at 10-21 straight up but last year's team was better than their 3-4 record indicated. The Bruins lost 4 games by a combined 15 points. This year's team will be the best in Kelly's tenure thanks to the return of 20 starters led by QB Dorian Thompson-Robinson who returns for his 4th year as the starting QB. In late June BetOnline released this line at UCLA -9 and obviously that was a mistake as our power ratings (see next page) had this game in the UCLA -18 range. The limits were only $500 (see pic) otherwise we would have liked to bet it for $5000. However, now with the 9-point line move we don't see too much value in the side. What we do like is the UNDER here. Hawaii's games averaged 53.8 ppg last year and UCLA's games averaged 66.1. Hawaii is going to run a faster tempo this year but that is over-compensated into this line in our opinion. The two teams' combined to return 21 of 22 starters on defense and we don't think they are as bad as what this total is making them out to be. Also with LSU on deck, we don't think UCLA pushes the pace here.

Utep 31 NEW MEXICO ST 23. I-10 rivalry that has seen New Mexico St win the last 3 match-ups. This is the best UTEP team in at least 5 years. That's not saying much considering their 5-39 straight up record but last year's team went 3-5. It should be noted that two of their wins came against FCS schools and the other came against a 0-10 ULM team. Still, two of their losses were by a combined 6 points. This year's UTEP team returns 19 starters led by QB Gavin Hardison. On the other side, New Mexico St returns only 3 starters from their 2019 team. The Aggies didn't play last fall but did have a couple of games this spring vs transitional FCS teams in Tarleton St and Dixie St. We weren't impressed as the Aggies split the two games and their defense allowed 36 ppg. Head coach Doug Martin said he was just using those games as scrimmages but that still doesn't excuse the performances against teams that were playing Division 2 football (below FCS) in 2019. At QB, the Aggies could split reps between Jonah Johnson and Weston Eget. We think UTEP is probably the sharper side here as we've seen a lot of professional money come in on them the last two weeks. However, we're not big fans on laying doubles with a team that in the last 10 tears has only been a road favorite 3 times! In fact, this is the largest away favorite role for UTEP since 2010! If the line goes to New Mexico St +10.5, the Aggies are worth a "pizza bet".

FRESNO ST 42 Connecticut 17. Another game that is tough for us to get involved considering Connecticut didn't play last fall. UConn was able to get in 25 practices last fall and had 3-4 weight lifting sessions each week. The Huskies return 14 starters from their 2019 team that went 2-10. Head coach Randy Edsall is just 6-30 straight up since returning to UConn in 2017. With that being said, we do like a couple of their players including RB Kevin Mensah who has back-to-back 1,000-yard rush seasons and WR Cameron Ross who flashed as a freshman with 723 receiving yards. The Huskies will probably play two QB's in Steven Krajewski and Jack Zergiotis. On the other side, Fresno should be much improved after they went 3-3 a year ago under first-year coach Kalen DeBoer. The Bulldogs return 20 starters led by QB Jake Haener (Washington transfer) who averaged 337 passing ypg a year ago. RB Ronnie Rivers is back for what seems like his 10th year and he has a legitimate shot at becoming the all-time leading rusher here (already 3,473 career rush yards). Our power ratings say UConn is the top play of Week Zero (see next page) but again, we're not used to dealing with teams who haven't played in almost 2 years. It's also tough trusting a UConn program that is just 37-71-1 ATS the last 10 years and has a -41 TO margin the last 4 years! We lean with UConn here but need a "+28" to show in the market to get more involved.

SAN JOSE ST 38 Southern Utah 14. Normally we don't include FBS vs FCS games in our weekly newsletter. The reason is because in past seasons the lines don't get posted on these games until very late in the week (usually on Gamedays). If you are interested in FBS vs FCS picks, they are included in our VIP package. As far as this game goes, San Jose St comes in off an historic season that saw them start 5-0 for the first time since 1939 and win their first conference championship since 1991. This year's team could be even better as they return 19 starters led by QB Nick Starkel who is playing what seems like his 10th year of CFB dating back to his Texas A&M days. On the other side, it will be interesting to see how FCS teams fare this season after just playing this spring. Southern Utah went just 1-5 this spring but note their 5 losses were by a combined 11 points! However, the Thunderbirds were a combined 4-19 in 2018-19 so they aren't a real threat here to keep it close. With USC on deck, does San Jose St put away the offense in the second half?

Week 1 Computer Projected Lines for Every CFB Game

For the past five seasons we have posted computer projected lines for every game. Games where there was of difference of more than 3 points saw our computer lines actually beat the Vegas line at a 373-302-12 (55%) including and outstanding 71-50 (59%) last year! That's pretty solid and actually better than our own handicapping in some seasons. Keep in mind, these computer lines don't take into consideration off-the-field factors like revenge or flat spots. They are basically a power-rating number difference between the two teams that also takes into consideration the home field advantage.

Of the 9 games where our computer is off more than 3 points compared to the Vegas line (highlighted), our favorite team this week to back would be Washington St -16.5.

The Comp column is the computer projected line and the Diff column is the difference between the Vegas line and the Computer line. "+" numbers in the difference column say back the underdog. "-" numbers in the difference column say back the favorite. Let us know if you have questions.

Week 1 CFB ATS Trends

1. Since 2000, teams that have a game under their belt are only 74-87-2 (46%) ATS vs teams playing their season opener (FBS vs FBS). It is better to have game film on your opponent than actually to have played the game.

Be wary of betting on these teams in Week 1 because the market tends to overreact to teams having already played a game.

Nebraska vs Fordham.
Illinois vs UTSA.
Hawaii vs Portland St.
UCLA vs LSU.
UTEP vs Bethune-Cookman.
New Mexico St vs San Diego St.
Connecticut vs Holy Cross.
Fresno St vs Oregon.
San Jose St vs USC.

2. Head coach Nick Saban is 14-0 straight up (+28.9 ppg) and 12-2 ATS (+7.7 ppg) in season openers at Alabama. Alabama is a 18.5-point favorite vs Miami, FL.

3. Currently, UTEP is a 10-point road favorite at New Mexico St. If that line holds, it will be UTEP's first away favorite role since 2015 and their largest since 2010.

4. Cincinnati is on a 14-0 straight up (+20.4 ppg) and 9-5 ATS (+5.1 ppg) run vs rival Miami, Oh.

5. Wake is a 31.5-point favorite vs Old Dominion. If that line holds, it will be Wake's largest favorite role ever vs an FBS opponent. They are 6-0 SU/3-3 ATS laying 28 or more vs FCS teams.

Betting CFB Openers

Every Sunday in Vegas at 11am PT, Circa Sports is the first book in the world to release CFB lines and we bet them every week. We think it's the best value bets we make all week. Last season was the first season where we tracked every single bet we made and posted them in the weekly newsletters. We were very pleased with our 119-76-3 (61%) record on these Sunday bets with an average line value of 2.6 ppg! Week 1 lines came out in late May for the big games and June 30th for all the FBS vs FBS games. Below is some of what we bet already. As of now we've gotten the best of the line on 25 of 26 bets by an average of 3.1 ppg.

(300) Illinois +11.5 over Nebraska...now +7.
