

CAMPING – September 22-23, 2023

FIRST – We welcome you to Cornstock! We are glad you are attending this year's music festival. We encourage you, if possible, to print this camping information, as well as the FAQ/Rules found on both the City of Garnett RecDesk online camping reservations portal and the Cornstock website, www.cornstock.net. Please read these pdf documents thoroughly before your arrival.

Things to know to make your lakeside camping experience at Lake Garnett the best -

Camping reservations open the first business day following the New Year's Day holiday each year. Reservations can be made through the City of Garnett Recreation's RecDesk online portal, <https://garnettrecreation.recdesk.com/Community/Page?pageId=19401>. There are electric campsites located in the Red Jacket Campground at Lake Garnett, and campsites at Veterans Memorial Park (aka, "South Lake/Crystal Lake") with electric and water. The remaining campsites have no electric or water hook-up. All campsites are available for the same low price on a first come, first serve basis until sold out. So, reserve your spots as soon as possible. For other RV parks and lodging, please visit www.cornstock.net.

RESERVATION DEADLINE: Midnight (11:59 p.m.), Wednesday, September 20, 2023. No exceptions.

Reservations:

Please begin the process by clicking on the link above and then scroll to the bottom of the City of Garnett Recreation Home page for information and instructions. If you need assistance with reserving campsites online, you may contact the Garnett Recreation Center Staff at 785-448-3023, Monday through Friday from 2 p.m. to 6 p.m., and Saturday mornings, 8 a.m. to 12 p.m. (noon). The Rec Center staff is extremely busy and may be away from the phone. If necessary, please leave a short message, clearly speaking your name and phone number and someone will return your call.

Campsite Fee: $50.00 total for Friday and Saturday (2) nights during the weekend of Cornstock.

Each campsite may include one RV OR one camper with vehicle, and one tent. All 25'x 60' campsites will be marked with boxes in white ground paint. All property must fit within the campsite as marked. If you need additional space, you will need to reserve an additional campsite. ALL PERSONS OCCUPYING THE PARK MUST HAVE CORNSTOCK CONCERT TICKETS OR PROOF OF RESERVED WILL-CALL TICKETS. CAMP HOSTS WILL BE CHECKING FOR BOTH CAMPSITE RESERVATION AND TICKETS. If additional tickets are needed, the Camp Hosts can assist you in making purchases.

ALL CAMPERS MUST CHECK-IN WITH THE CAMP HOST UPON ARRIVAL. YOU WILL BE PLACED IN THEIR SPOT ON A FIRST COME, FIRST SERVE BASIS. If you plan to camp as a group, please plan to come at the same time to avoid separation. The location of the Camp Host Base will be clearly marked upon your arrival. Please be kind to our camp hosts. They volunteer their time to help you have a great time.

CHECK-IN TIME: CAMPERS WILL NOT BE ALLOWED TO SETUP CAMP BEFORE 8 A.M. ON FRIDAY.

Normal check-in time will begin at 8 a.m. on Friday and end at 8 p.m. Friday night. Check-in will resume at 8 a.m. on Saturday. All campers must be on site by 12 p.m. (noon) on Saturday. Please note that campers coming into the park after 9 a.m. on Saturday will be directed around the lake (left at the "Y").

CAMPING RULES, THINGS TO KNOW:

- All guests camping within the city parks for Cornstock are asked to be respectful and good neighbors to other campers.
- The Camp Hosts will provide all campers with a "welcome bag". Included will be information about the event, the community, and will contain two (2) Parking Passes for Saturday. If you leave the park, please keep a Parking Pass in the vehicle you leave in. This will avoid having to pay the Parking Fee to get back into the park.
- All minors attending Cornstock must be accompanied by at least one parent or legal guardian.
- Courtesy shuttle buses will run continually through the Lake Garnett (North Lake Park) beginning at 2:30 p.m. Shuttles will run to outer campsites, including Veterans Memorial Park beginning at 2:15 p.m. These shuttles take passengers right up the hill to the concert entrance.
- Our Camp Hosts reserve the right to direct RVs and campers with un-muffled generators to an area away from tents, RVs and campers having self-contained, low noise generators. Campsites with generators that are too loud and disruptive to those around them will be asked to turn them off.
- Campfires are okay, unless the City of Garnett Fire Department has declared a burn-ban. You must have your own fire pit or ring, and the fire must be contained and extinguished when not attended.
- Showers: Campers can utilize the showers at the Garnett Recreation Center, located at the park entrance during the following times only: Friday from 2 p.m. to 6 p.m. This amenity is included in your camping fee.
- Restrooms: Restrooms or portable restrooms will be made available in camping areas.
- Help us keep Lake Garnett beautiful by placing your trash in the trash receptacles.
- Quiet time will be in effect from 1 a.m. to 6 a.m. on Saturday and Sunday. No generators or music after 1 a.m., but can resume as early as 6 a.m.
- You are encouraged to explore the city of Garnett business districts and attractions on Friday and on Saturday morning. Join us for the Cornstock Cornhole Tournament and other activities TBA. Remember, if you leave the park on Saturday morning, please remember your parking pass!
- ATVs, golf carts and other recreation vehicles, other than event staff, are prohibited.
- No weapons of any kind are allowed.
- Law Enforcement will be on patrol. In the event of an emergency, please call 9-1-1. If you need a police officer, please call 785-448-5428.
- All campsites must be cleaned and all camping equipment removed by 3 p.m. on Sunday. Any garbage that cannot be put in a trash receptacle must be bagged and left by a trash receptacle.

NO REFUNDS, EXCHANGES. ALL SALES ARE FINAL.

PLEASE NOTE: All persons entering the North Lake Park, attending Cornstock, the Anderson County Corn Festival and the activities and campgrounds therein do so at your own risk. This includes weather, Covid concerns or any other concerns or threats. By your attendance you assume all liability. No liability is or will be assumed by the Anderson County Corn Festival Board of Directors, its volunteers, the City of Garnett, the County of Anderson, managers, promoters, entertainment, sponsors, or others.
