--Mt 10:42

REFLECTION

We tend to respond to people according to their status. We are very careful to treat those deemed important with courtesy and respect. Yet, each person is a child of God and our brother or sister. Each person is special and beloved in God's eyes. How do you treat the store clerk, garbage collector, or the street beggar? Do you treat them as someone special in God's eyes? Are you so focused on your own concerns that you do not notice the needs of others? Consider how you might become more aware and respectful of those you encounter in the course of your day.

PASTOR'S PEN: A GRATEFUL HEART

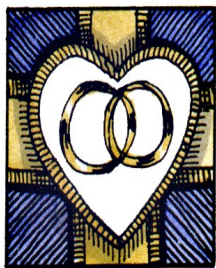

LAND UPDATE: LAND PURCHASED, CONTRACTED, SIGNED AND DEAL CLOSED.

With great joy, I am really grateful to the families and one parish organization who donated towards the purchase of the field (4.33acres) and the 4 lots of land (80x120 each). The field will be good for the school kids as regards sports activities and the 4 lots for future use of parish family functions.

At the moment, the contract for the land is signed and closed. The land is now OURS. Thanks to all those who made it possible. May God continue to bless you all. If you are still interested in donating to help us make the field safer for the kids, it will be much appreciated. You can call the rectory to make a donation.

NEW PRINCIPAL: RANDY STRUCK

I am happy to announce to the parish family that after due consultation with the Search Committee for the principal, that Mr. Randy Struck has been hired to be the principal for the Immaculate Conception School. He comes with great experience and optimism for the school. He is a seasoned administrator. Above all, he is a husband, father and may be a young grandfather. On behalf of our Parish community, I welcome Mr. Randy Struck to our parish and school.
