 GENERAL MEETING - JANUARY 12th

“STATE-OF-THE-ATSSA”

The ATSSA governing Board of Management has decided to use this meeting as an opportunity to update and have a general discussion on the opportunities and challenges facing the ATSSA organisation as a whole: Sponsorship issues due to budgetary restrictions imposed by the economy; Governance issues; Plans for the future.

On the governance issue, it would appear that the Board’s effort to get all branches and the CFMS to comply with long established criteria and by-laws, has occasioned a rift in our organisation that needs to be addressed in more detail than was done at our General Meeting on November 12th of last year.

Members and Sponsors: Please take some time out to call as many members and sponsors as you can, to encourage them to attend and to participate in a constructive and idea oriented forum.

(Summary: The ATSSA was formed in Toronto in 1938 as a volunteer not-for-profit organization. A Board of Management governance structure was established by the founding Toronto Chapter and registered charter holder (more commonly referred to as the Toronto ATS), with a constitution and by-laws formulated accordingly. The Toronto Chapter expanded the ATSSA organization to include the current network of Branches; while operating the CFMS jointly with the Branches).

MEETING – DECEMBER 8, 2011

Turned out to be quite the success as a serious but also light hearted and charitable event!

Dan Cushing and Ed Roeder quarterbacked the installation of the new Executive of the Toronto ATSSA for 2012/2013. A few 'designated' could not attend and their installation will be completed at our next meeting on January 12, 2012. Dan gave a vote of thanks to outgoing President Steve Plaskos who could not attend. The reins were then handed over to incoming President Dan Cushing and to Vice President Ed Roeder. (For a complete listing of your new Executive, please see page 4).

Both Chris Dennis and Alex Burbidge with Vaughn Fire Services expressed their sincere thanks for the food and cash for the Food Bank; as did Major Kathy Sharp with the Salvation Army. Similarly, constables Zoe Brown and Niki Georgiadis with Peel Regional Police expressed their appreciation for the toys, cheques and cash raised for their "Toys for Tots" program. Emergency Road Services kindly boosted the cause greatly by selling tickets for some nice prizes also provided by ERS.

Well known comedian, emcee and facilitator, Evan Carter, headlined the main event and lived up to his billing as "a young Bill Cosby". Thanks to Fort Garry Industries and to Texis Exhaust for sponsoring this act.

50/50 Draw: Bruno Gemmiti of Gojit/Dicom Express won the 50/50. There was a nice sum of money raised, along with the food and toys, for the various charities.
