Commissioners Report:

Please contact your partner ahead of game day at least 48 hours to make arrangements

Keet will be pushing out the next schedule to May 4th please have availability accurate

Salem will be giving us some games as they cannot cover them. If you have availability and are willing to travel please let Keet know

Try not to do back to back team and positions if this happens please let Keet know so he can move things around

Remember OSAA wants us to Warn/Restrict/Eject unless the offense is severe then an Ejection might occur if you eject a coach/parent/student athlete as soon as the game is over your first call should be to Keet

Lebanon catcher has medical issues that cause her to go into a shock like medical situations please be aware of this and know that Lebanon has medical staff trained to handle her situation

Old Business:

None

New Business:

Banquet Committee is Jim Postell and Jay Thatcher if anyone wants to help please let them know

Election Committee is Ralph Gotta and Jim Luebke

All umpires are reminded that evaluations are needed to be submitted in order to do playoff games. They will need to complete 3 varsity and 2 JV games.

We have loaner gear available for new umpires please contact Jerry to check it out.

Training/Game Situations:

Make sure fields are properly marked if not call the commissioner after your game
