The 41st Annual Andersonville Historic Fair and Civil War Reenactment was held on October 7-8, 2017 in the Civil War Village of Andersonville, Georgia. Camps were set up and a battle was staged each day.

Gates opened to the public at 10 am both days, with the battles taking place on Saturday at 3pm and Sunday at 2pm. Sutlers selling uniforms, accouterments, guns, swords, flags and civilian clothing of the era added color and interest as did craftsmen such as gunsmiths, blacksmiths, basket makers, quilters, weavers, and artists of all kinds. Visitors enjoyed a Saturday morning parade and sampled the wares of the many food vendors. Special entertainment included performances by The Southern Gunslingers, puppet shows, line dancing, clogging, bluegrass, jazz and country band performances, and gospel singing.

THE FIELD HOSPITAL

A demonstration illustrated the medical practices and procedures common during the War period. Participants included Joel and Jessie Whitehead, Evie Stancil, and Brick Lee Nelson, Rachael Holland of the 53rd GA and a host of 16th GA casualties.

CATHY'S CLOWN

The Humor of Kenny Stancil

A young naval student was being put through the paces by an old sea captain.

"What would you do if a sudden storm sprang up on the starboard?"

"Throw out an anchor, sir," the student replied.

"What would you do if another storm sprang up aft?"

"Throw out another anchor, sir."

"And if another terrific storm sprang up forward, what would you do then?" asked the captain.

"Throw out another anchor, sir."

"Hold on," said the captain. "Where are you getting all those anchors from?"

"From the same place you're getting your storms, sir."

They say St. Patrick drove the snakes out of Ireland. I wonder if he could do that for Congress.

How it is one careless match can start a forest fire, but it takes a whole box to start a campfire?

Quotations

"I accept nothing other than the King James Bible as being Holy Scripture." - Duke

"I used to have some Christian feeling toward Yankees, but now that they have invaded our country and killed so many of our men and desecrated so many homes, I can't believe that when Christ said 'Love your enemies, He meant Yankees." – Eliza Francis Andrews, in Macon, GA, April 18, 1865

"When thou passest through the waters, I will be with thee; and through the rivers, they shall not overflow thee: when thou walkest through the fire, thou shalt not be burned; neither shall the flame kindle upon thee." - Isaiah 43:2

Lee Celebration Is Back - In Milledgeville

Please mark your calendars for Saturday, Jan. 20, 2018. We will be back in Milledgeville and the Old Capitol Camp #688 is working hard to make it a great day. We will be having our parade which will start at 10:45AM, lineup is no later than 10:30AM. The parade will head to the First Baptist Church of Milledgeville at 330 S. Liberty Street. The Church is blocks away from the historic landmarks in town and they have been gracious enough to allow us the use of their fellowship hall. It seats 150, I think we will have overflow and that will be great if it happens. Our speaker is Sam Hood. You probably have heard of Sam, he is a collateral descendant of General John Bell Hood. Period correct flags, only, in good condition.

Ivis Bradford whose business card appears (above) in this newsletter writes: "I finally updated my Etsy store with new sleeping caps. A few other things are in the works to be added in the near future. Perhaps there are some in need of a cap for the upcoming cooler events, or I would appreciate everyone's assistance in spreading the word about my business. The best kind of advertising is through people you know and trust!!! I would be indebted to you and the other members for any help with advertisement. I continue to welcome custom sewing projects at this time. Here is the link to the store:" <https://www.etsy.com/shop/BarnLucky>
