All finished wood species will exhibit color changes when exposed to different light and environments. Graining differences, Mineral streaks, and color variations are expected in wood cabinetry. Finger joint technique is used in some of our molding and accessory items, which is acceptable in industry standards, natural variations in wood make the possibility of the finger joints visible. All wood cabinets will expand and contract due to temperature, humidity and other environmental factors. Such changes are expected and are not defects, therefore are not guaranteed. No warranties and representations made other than representations set forth on this statement, whether expressed or implied by law, are made in lieu of such warranties and representations.

Full payment must be made before delivery or pickup. In the event it is necessary to refer this matter to an attorney, or collection agencies for collection, the buyer hereby agrees to pay any and all reasonable fees and costs charged by said attorney or collection agency. Returned check fee is $50
