A Lifetime Affair

Lessons Learned Living My Passion

By Stephanie Ann Lynn

What people are saying about A Lifetime Affair:

"As a horseperson, I really enjoyed every story-Quarter Horse industry folk will appreciate Stephanie's barn-aisle honesty. But her lessons learned in the risks and rewards of a life with horses offers inspiration for everyone. Horses, and horse people, are amazing teachers."

Christine Hamilton, Editor, Quarter Horse Journal

"Stephanie is a horseman with a sense of grace and style. She is a great teacher, encouraging and tough!"

Angie Southworth, student

"In 2009, I proudly cheered from the stands as I watched Stephanie win at the AQHA World Championship show in Sr. Pleasure Driving. Stephanie is a wonderful lady and deserves all she dreams of in life. I hope that she will influence you, as she did me... Use Stephanie's stories to Follow Your Dreams."

Lynn Palm Pittion Rossillon
World-renowned horse trainer, mentor

A Lifetime Affair is a collection of delightfully engaging true stories depicting the author's journey from a wide-eyed, determined young girl obsessed with horses to a champion in the show ring, world-class trainer and respected horse show judge.

From the bouncing back and forth on Prince Henry, the spring-based toy horse, to sludging muck in the barn during Wisconsin's bitter winters, to building a business in the sultry heat of Texas, to taking her place in the winners' circle of the World Championship show ring, Stephanie takes readers with her, offering insight and inspiration at every turn. Readers will feel the passion, witness the perseverance, and cheer the determination that led to Stephanie's hard-fought and well-earned achievements.

A Lifetime Affair is written for horse lovers, dream chasers and people of all ages who can benefit from a small spark of inspiration to ignite their own passions.
