

Miller, Richard

Richard "Dick" Miller, 74, of Grayling and formerly of Bad Axe, passed away at home on Thursday, July 1, 2004. Dick was born on March 13, 1930 in Bay City to Hugh Harry Miller and Dora Leffler. He graduated from Grayling High School in 1948 and began working at Hunter's Dairy before entering the Army from 1948-1951. He then worked for the New York Central Railroad prior to entering the Michigan State Police Academy in 1957. He was stationed at the posts in Flint and Gaylord and retired from the post in Bad Axe. He and Joan moved to Grayling in 1989. He enjoyed golfing, computers and his family. He married Joan Thompson in 1950. He is survived by his wife; four daughters, Jodi Strong and her husband, Mark, Jamie Krug and her husband, Leonard, Jean Fisher and her husband, Gary, and JoEllen Kladzyk and her husband, Tom; seven grandchildren; and two great-grandchildren. Cremation will take place on Saturday and by his request, no service will be conducted. Donations can be made to Mercy Americare Homecare and Hospice, 201 Meadows Drive, Suite A, Grayling, Michigan 49738. Cards may be sent to Joan Miller, 121 Wendy Lane; Grayling, Michigan 49738.