

HAROLD DUMAW

1905 - 1988

Harold F. Dumaw, age 82, of Meade Twp., passed away Sunday, May 8 at his home after an apparent heart attack.

He was born Oct. 18, 1905 at Pinnebog, son of the late George and Nellie (Peterson) Dumaw. He was united in marriage to Marion G. Whitney on Oct. 7, 1939 at Asbury College Chapel, Wilmore, Ky.

The couple lived and farmed in Meade Twp., retiring in 1976. They were winter residents for 15 years at Avon Park, Fla. He was a member of Pinnebog United Methodist Church, a Sunday School teacher at the church, former chairman of the church board and lay delegate to the State Methodist Conference. He attended Pinnebog High School and served on the board of education. He also was a lifelong Republican and member of the Huron County Farm Bureau.

He is survived by his wife, Marion; one daughter, Mrs. Robert (Mary Ann) Beaumont, Caseville; one grandson; two sisters, Mrs. Dorothy Lotter, Mayville and Mrs. Helen Reiswig, Lodie, Calif.; one brother, Arthur Dumaw, Kinde and several nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by two brothers, Earl Dumaw and Burton Dumaw and two sisters, Mrs. Beatrice Tamblyn and Leta Dumaw.

Funeral services will be conducted Wednesday, May 11 at 1 p.m. at the Pinnebog United Methodist Church. The Rev. Robert P. Garrett, pastor and the Rev. John Adams, retired pastor, will officiate with burial in the Colfax Cemetery Mausoleum.

Friends may call at the MacAlpine Funeral Home, Bad. or at the church on Wednesday from noon until the time of services.

Memorials may be made to the Pinnebog United Methodist church.
