

OPERATION OVERWATCH 5

STORYLINE

As the battle ended and the smoke cleared, the SS sustained a heavy loss pursuing the FC into their home territory during Operation Homeland. SS forces are currently making their way back to regroup and attempt to hold their footing at the Training Grounds facility (formally known as Altair) they have fought so hard to secure. Meanwhile as the SS forces attempt to regroup and resupply the FC has brought in a new CO by the call-sign Zmonster. Already looking to take the fight to the retreating SS forces Zmonster with the approval of FC command has dispatched a small Special Forces unit to the Training Grounds facility to disrupt any attempt of regrouping or resupply until the rest of the FC forces can move on the facility and take out the SS once and for all.....

The race for survival has begun, will you fight to maintain the Sovereignty of the Independent States or will you fight to bring the Independent States under Coalition control.....
