Guests (1)

Christy Rupert (7360 John Street) discussed continued concerns of traffic safety with the continued construction project and appreciated the Township installing the “No Truck” signs at John/Lancaster and Truro Avenue. Updated that the residents were going to be cleaning up some of the debris along the south-side of John Street that is on their properties. Informed us that the residents still have major concerns of the right-of-way and property lines and the determination of such with Redwood construction project, have provided to the Township some copies of the property owners property abstracts. Discussed concerns of proposed disability house on Truro Avenue within Reynoldsburg corporation limits. Asked about changing speed limit on Truro and John Streets.
