

Philippine Consulate General in Vancouver Participates at UBC's Taste of SEA: Night Market

16 November 2018 – (L-R) Consul Arlene T. Magno joins Malaysian Consul General Shamsul Nizam Shamsuddin; University of British Columbia Professor Cesi Cruz; Thai Consul General Nontawat Chandrtri; Vietnamese Consul General Pham Manh Hai; and Indonesian Consul Maria Renata Hutgalung in the rice-pouring ceremony that opens the annual UBC event.

Consular Assistant Ma. Regina Manalo (rightmost) replies to queries of UBC students about the food products and handicraft on display at the Philippine booth at the UBC's Taste of SEA: Night Market.

(R-L) Consul Arlene T. Magno (3L) poses with UBC Professor Cesi Cruz (2L) who delivered the opening remarks at the UBC event participated in by the Consulates General of Indonesia, Malaysia, Philippines, Thailand and Vietnam.

Ms. Sandy Co (3L), president of Kababayans, a UBC Filipino student association, visits and poses with Consul Arlene T. Magno (center) and Consular Assistants (L-R) Alvin dela Peña, Abigale Oira, Jeanie-vi Llonora, Ma. Regina Manalo, and Michael Yturriaga who manned the Philippine booth that evening.