June 24, 2018
Solemnity of the Nativity of Saint John the Baptist
Luke 1:57-66, 80

“The child grew and became strong in spirit, and he was in the desert until the day of his manifestation to Israel.”

Hollywood productions about Jesus that included John the Baptist understandably lead many to believe that the Baptist was beheaded in Herod's palace in Jerusalem. However, Herod's father, Herod the Great, had several strategically located palace-fortresses outside of Jerusalem: Herodium, west of Jerusalem, Masada, overlooking the western shore of the Dead Sea, and Machaerus, east of the Dead Sea in what is now the country of Jordan. It was in Machaerus that John was beheaded by Herod because he grew up “strong in spirit” and preached to his followers, and to people with power, to “Repent, for the Kingdom of Heaven is at hand.” John was not violent; he was not hateful; he preached the truth; and he called people to “repent.” Repentance requires change. No one likes change. We do not like the person who calls us to change. John was imprisoned and beheaded at Machaerus because he would not shut up. Are we willing to change? Are we willing to call others to change, even people with power? Are we willing to suffer the consequences? Or do we remain silent? What will we say to Jesus?

The Lunch Bunch will meet every 2nd Tuesday. The next meeting is Tuesday, July 10th at 11:30am at St. Anthony of Padua's new gathering space.

BBQ chicken, pork steaks, and drinks will be provided by the church. Please bring picnic side dishes or desserts to share.

Everyone is welcome!

Vocare 2018

VOCARE 2018 is Friday, September 14, 2018 at the Owensboro Convention Center. It begins with a social hour at 5 PM and dinner/program at 6 PM. The speakers will represent 70+ years of collective vocations as we have three of our own diocesan priests sharing about their love of the priesthood.

As you are aware, VOCARE is Bishop William Medley's event to celebrate vocations to priesthood, marriage and religious life. Proceeds from this event assist in funding the formation of our seminarians and women religious. The Bishop's Office coordinates with the Vocations Office to host this event. This year marks the 5th Annual VOCARE!

The cost for VOCARE is $500 for a table that seats 8 people. Individual seats may be purchased for $65 or two for $125.
