Bad Tempered Zombie Review Calgary

...what you get with Tap9 is five accomplished musicians playing well-produced original music. With songs that vary from guitar and drum-driven upbeat numbers to sultry saxophone-touched harmony-soaked crooners, this is an album that showcases the versatility of this small town band with the big city sound.

“Any time you can create your own music, get it out on a CD and have people enjoy it—it’s rewarding,”

Ponoka News CD Review

...Some of the slower, moodier songs, especially For You I Bleed, are reminiscent of Billy Idol’s Sweet Sixteen. ...The band has versatile voices with great tones that seem to contort and even distort themselves to match every songs atmosphere, from the carefree to the darker.
