SPECIAL FILM STAR GUEST: Tim Abell – Star of Rodeo & Juliet and a coming soon EFF On-Demand Film
<https://www.imdb.com/name/nm0008543/>

An exciting, eclectic actor, Tim Abell is a man of his own making and when that making includes teaching ballroom dancing, horse training, writing, cooking, acting, producing and being a US Army Ranger with the 75th Ranger Regiment, you can see it is a formidable combination.

His break came, when April Webster recommended that Jerry Bruckheimer cast him in Soldier of Fortune (1997) as Benny Ray Riddle, a former Marine scout/sniper recruited by the Pentagon to work as part of a covert team. The syndicated series ran for two seasons. Then followed a series of films that made much of Tim's military experiences, including The Base (1999), where he starred opposite Mark Dacascos in a performance that had him compared to a young Willem Dafoe, and The Substitute: Failure Is Not an Option (2001) which also starred Treat Williams and Bill Nunn.

SPECIAL GUEST AUTHOR: Robin Hutton / Sgt. RECKLESS Robin Hutton - <https://www.sgtreckless.com>

P O Box 1125 – Moorpark – CA – 93020 - +1-805-603-2174 – sgtreckless@yahoo.com

The story of Reckless is not only remarkable - it is unusual. And once you learn about her, you will see why the Marine Corps not only fell in love with her - but honored her and promoted her every chance they got. And it wasn't just the Marines that served with her in the trenches that honored her - her last promotion to Staff Sergeant was by Gen. Randolph McC Pate - the Commandant of the entire Marine Corps. You can't get higher than that in the Marines.

SPECIAL GUEST AUTHOR: Lois Tiller / Stairway To Heaven - <https://www.stairwaytoheavenstory.com/>

The story begins in Eureka, Kansas in 1938, with a black Irish horse trainer named Tommy O'Dell and his storytelling daughter, Lily. And a valiant steed named Ajax, the three of them intent on setting the world on fire by winning a race.

Through it all, Tommy is his own worst enemy and Lily is his saving grace. By the end of the tale, their faith in life and each other is tested.

Stairway to Heaven has an abiding message - that love doesn't just conquer all, it has the power to conjure miracles.

ABOUT EQUUS FILM FESTIVAL LOS ANGELES:

The Equus Film Festival Los Angeles (EFFLA) has joined with the Los Angeles Equestrian Center (LAEC) based, non-profit charity, Hands On Horses (HOH). Together the EFFLA and HOH are hosting a two-day equine film festival featuring films, art and literary – ALL ABOUT HORSES. The Festival proceeds will be managed by EFFLA and distributed through Hands On Horses to support equestrians and/or horses in need of financial aid.

ABOUT LA EQUESTRIAN CENTER:

The Los Angeles Equestrian Center offers complete boarding facilities with access from our property perimeter to over 50 miles of Griffith Park horse trails. Conveniently located, amenity filled, the Los Angeles Equestrian Center is an excellent location to board your horse. The Los Angeles Equestrian Center is very film friendly and we would love to help with your filming, photo or parking needs. We are centrally located in the Burbank/Los Angeles area and in close proximity to Disney, ABC, Warner Brothers, NBC and Universal Studios. Our 72-acre property is mostly dedicated to horses with several different types of barns, riding and show rings, a polo ring and our signature 3500 seat covered arena. The two-day film festival begins Saturday at 10:00 am and concludes Sunday at 9:30 pm. The 19 horse related feature films and documentaries are divided into eight blocks. For times and descriptions, go to <http://www.equusfilmfestival.net/> (click tab LA California Tour Stop Program). There are two "Free Family Films" Saturday beginning at 10:00 am. Tickets are just $15/block, can be purchased now at: <http://www.equusfilmfestival.net/la-california-tour-stop.html>.

Starting off the day on Saturday at 9:00 a.m. you're invited to try Equestrian Vaulting with Biggi Kriebel of Black Forest Farms on the Cricket Warm-Up Arena. (www.vaultingacademy.com).

There will be a meet 'n' greet, 10:30 a.m.-1:00 p.m., with Harold Parker (Adolfo Camarillo's great-grandson and President of the Camarillo White Horse Association) www.camarillowhitehorses.org and his horse Panchito, along with his son Ryan and Destello. The horses, famous for their Rose Bowl appearances, will be doing demonstrations after the film screening of "Stallion Of A Dream: California And The Camarillo White Horse. Their film screens Sunday at 11:20 a.m. as part of Block 4.

Equine consultant and clinician Bruce Anderson, founder of Natural Humanship, will offer a demonstration and clinic from 2:00-5:00 p.m. in the Equidome. Anderson will be joined by partner, Julianne Neal, producer and director the Spotlight Rescue Series (part of Block 4, Sunday 10 a.m.). Attendees are welcome to watch as he demonstrates how to build relationships between horse and owner. Private appointments are available Saturday and Sunday. For more information and reservations, call 803-351-0223. For more background on the program, go to <http://www.naturesview.us/>.

From 1:00-6:00 p.m. come ride "Bolero," an electric simulator horse at Black Forest Farms and L&H Equine, a equine nutritional company, that will offer free diet analyses for both you and your horse, at an open house in Barn B.

Sunday from 3:30-4:30 p.m., after the screening of Scout's Honour, Winnie award winner for people's choice horse hero film of 2016, the horse will "sign" autographs, along with owner Naomi Boinus. Scout will happily accept carrots and apples from his fans. Their story screens Sunday at 2:15 pm as part of Block 6.
