DESCRIPTION: Priced at $115 in 1963, the Lady Sovereign was one of the most expensive and highest performing bows of its model year. This rare restored bow still shoots like a dream; smooth and accurate. Brazilian Rosewood riser. Comfortable grip; Bow has no delamination; no cracks; limbs are straight. Overlays and tips are in great condition. 3 professionally filled holes on the back of the bow that are only visible at very close range. (see pic on last page). No chips, dings or cracks. No stress lines or crazing. A few minor scratches and nicks here and there. Decal is in good shape. Overall, this is a really nice bow in excellent condition for its age.

This bow was put to a stress test (held at full draw for 16 hours to make sure the old glues still held and no stress cracks developed. Comes with a serviceable Hoyt flex rest , and a new string.

This bow sold for $115 in 1962, which translates to $1,159 in 2024 inflation adjusted dollars.
