

Purpose

To provide Deaf and Hard of Hearing children, ages 5 - 15, from across the State of Mississippi, the opportunity to interact with like children in an environment where communication is not a problem through recreational activities.

Location

Mississippi Lions Deaf Camp is held at beautiful Camp Wilkes, an 89 acre youth camp located on the Biloxi Back Bay in Biloxi, Mississippi. Facilities include: Dormitories, Dining Hall, Swimming Pool, Fishing Pier and Boat Dock, Nature trails, Water Sports, Archery and much more.

Activities

Mississippi Lions Deaf Camp offers a weekend of recreational activities that promote good health, positive attitudes, and friendships that last a lifetime. Some of the activities may include:

Wii Games

Swimming

Crafts

Field Trips

Outdoor Fun

We strive to provide our campers with an environment that not only offers fun, positive recreational activities for the body and mind, but Memories that will Last Forever.

American Sign Language is the Official Language of Lions Deaf Camp
