INSTRUCTIONS

- ✓ Working individually or in small groups, have students complete the Voting Hassles worksheet.

- ✓ Next, read the following to the class: Do you still think your right to vote is secure? In your opinion, how effective are U.S. laws related to voting? Here are the corresponding dates and places where the voting conditions described on the worksheet have existed—each of them, right here in our own nation, some as recent as five years ago! Maybe we still need to think hard about protecting our right to vote.

USE IT OR LOSE IT!

VOTING HASSLES

Directions: Consider for a moment what it would mean to be denied the ability to elect our government officials. Imagine that the following incidents happened to you.

Use primary sources to research when and where each of these incidents might have happened. List at least one primary source you used for each incident below.

1. While you are waiting to register to vote, some men ride by in a pickup truck with shotguns. It is very hot and you are waiting in line very long. The water has been turned off at a nearby faucet and there is nothing to drink. Suddenly the doors ahead close and you are told for the third day in a row to go home and come back tomorrow.
2. A poll tax is charged for you to vote. You have very little money to pay, and they tell you that since you did not pay last year, you now owe twice as much if you want to vote.
3. Before they will allow you to register to vote, you are required to interpret several sections of the country's constitution that explains the rules of government. Your explanation must meet the approval of the registrar.
4. When you attempt to vote, you are arrested and put in jail.
5. Voting districts are gerrymandered (boundaries are drawn in uneven, illogical shapes) so that certain groups of people are submerged in a larger group. This larger group of people will effectively cancel your voting interests.
6. Radio ads are run to purposely confuse you about the method of absentee voting.
7. Polling places are closed early in certain areas of the city. Your precinct is closed when you get off work and you do not get to vote.
8. Ballots are difficult or confusing to interpret. They are also difficult to mark so that your vote cannot be easily read.
