Important Movie to be Shown

Saturday, June 24, 1 p.m.

Meeting Room

Booth Library, Newtown

Protect Our Pollinators and the C. H. Booth Library present Vanishing of the Bees, a film which highlights the world-wide decline of honey bees during the last decade. A number of beekeepers as well as local officials from government and private organizations are interviewed. Following that we will discuss what is being done in Connecticut to support pollinators, and what can be done locally to increase bee habitat and nesting sites. Light refreshments will be available. No charge.
