

#7 Student MJ Q&A

7. What is the penalty for someone between 18 and 21 being caught with marijuana? Will it go on their personal record? For someone between 18-21 who possesses less than an ounce of marijuana the penalty is generally a $100 civil fine. In Ashland however, a town by-law dictates that the fine is increased to $300. Civil fines do not appear on a criminal record, however failure to pay the fine could result in criminal sanctions and a criminal record.
