The Breath Before the Blast

There are times,
when in the darkness
of my heart and mind,
I grope about.

Like a blind man,
unsure of where to step,
I fear the darkness
and call out.

With a voice,
seeking silence and peace,
I search to hear and see a quiet being.

Dwelling quietly, still,
in the presence of my soul.
His love, enduring;
a light to lift the darkness,
Jesus, crucified.
