Neva Woody, President of the charitable organization Shoot Like a Girl, presented a donation check to the Cameron Veterans Home Assistance League on Sunday, November 11. The presentation took place in front of a room full of veterans as part of the Veterans

Day program at the visits with friends, furniture for Cameron Veterans Home, the rooms, and attending sporting events and activities of interest. In Last year Shoot Like A Girl was able to raise $30,000 for the Assistance League, which goes toward filling any needs or extra services that veterans in the home may require. Things such as transportation to and from doctors' appointments, Shoot Like a Girl presented the Assistance League with a donation check of $45,000. The group raises money throughout the year, holding three shooting events and a gun raffle to raise funds. Neva Woody told the Veterans in attendance that "it is a pleasure and a joy to go out on your behalf". According to Gary Summers, of the Veterans Assistance League, Shoot Like a Girl is always their biggest contributor.
