

BEST TRAILER PARK

Briny Breezes

In the 1920s, it was a strawberry farm nestled between the Intracoastal Waterway and the Atlantic Ocean. In the 1930s, the farmer rented parking spaces to travel trailers for $3 a week. In the 1950s, the farmer retired and the tourists bought the lots. In 1963, the Town of Briny Breezes was incorporated. And in 2006, a condo developer offered that town's 400-plus residents $510 million for their 43 acres. They turned him down. Today, a single trailer and lot are on the market for $132,500; brinybreezes-fl.com.
