

Tapir Lodge

Cuyabeno Reserve

From/to Lago Agrio

4 Days/3 Nights

5 Days/4 Nights

7 Days/6 Nights (4 nights in the Lodge, 2 nights in tents)

The Tapir Lodge is situated on the banks of the Cuyabeno River where hardly any mosquitos can be found, due to the black water area.

All rooms are cozy and equipped with balcony and hammocks. The bungalows with four double rooms and two four-bed rooms are spacious and have their own private bathroom with hot water.

Prospective Travel itinerary 4 days/3 nights:

admire the variety of flora and fauna that can be found in the Cuyabeno Reserve.

Day 1: In the morning you will be picked up in Lago Agrio by your private guide and start your drive to “El Puente”. Throughout this drive you will have the opportunity to see beautiful landscapes created by the combination of rainforest, rivers and small towns. After a box lunch you will board a motorized canoe which will bring you to the lodge. During the trip you get the chance to Day 2: After a delicious breakfast you will get acquainted with the local wildlife in the „Laguna Grande“. Numerous trees, lianas, gigantic palm trees and orchids await you. During the day you will have the opportunity to listen to the jungle birds, peckers, and toucans. With a bit of luck you can also observe monkeys. After lunch, a refreshing bath in the Cuyabeno Lagoon is scheduled.

Day 3: Today you will visit a Cofan Shaman and his family in a small community where you will learn how different plants are used for medical purposes and which healing rituals the shaman practices. Later on during a hike through the Jungle to “Terra firme” you will be able to see different animals. On your way back you will visit an indigenous community and their school. After sundown you should not miss the chance to search for caimans.

Day 4: After an early breakfast, bird watching is planned. This is one of your last chances to admire the beautiful landscape of the Cuyabeno Reserve. Afterwards, you will be brought back to Lago Agrio.
