In Rosey's Words....

As you know, political parties are divided up into conservative and liberal parties, as well as independents.

Though I find myself leaning towards conservative ways, I have some liberal views as well, therefore I've come to the conclusion that segregating us just confuses us and doesn't really work well anymore.

To prevent arguments and angry outcomes, I feel we need only one party, 'The Peoples Party,' where we vote for the man or woman that best suits the need of our country and its' people.

Researching the candidate and their background and views is where our trust should lie, as opposed to depending on a "particular party" to choose and financially back a candidate.

We need to take control of our choices by researching our own choices and including ourselves in the process personally.

Less arguments, less rallies and riots, and much more peaceful outcomes with no party to blame.

Call me crazy, but it's an option.

I do give President Biden credit for progress of the COVID-19 solutions and encourage my fellow man/woman to take it seriously by getting vaccinated.

There are so many opinions on anything and everything related to the vaccine, but I feel personally that we can't take the chance of losing anymore loved ones.

There is always light at the Politics is something I have always enjoyed since I was a child meeting politicians that my uncles brought to my grandmother's house.

Always, I was interested in what grownups had to say as I positioned myself under tables and behind settees while making sense of the conversations.

end of the tunnel and something to look forward to, so be of good faith, be as healthy as you can be, help those who need you, and know that it's going to get better.

Life seems to repeat itself in history, so know that at the end of a crisis, there will once again be joy.

Find peace in your heart, faith in your soul while living through the changes life brings to our days.

Recently, while dining at a family restaurant in Painesville, a woman and her friend stopped me to say how much they enjoyed my articles.

It made my day and they were the sweetest to say the nicest things and recognize me, even in my grubbies.

It's the little things that make a day beautiful and I'll never forget how grateful I was to meet them.

That's why I say, 'there's always something to smile about and be so grateful for.'

When you least expect it, a lovely moment will tap you on the shoulder, reassuring you that every day is a blessing.

What may seem like an uneventful day may bring joy in the most unexpected way.

Keep your mind still and realize something wonderful will make your day.

Looking at the Christmas cacti all blooming today takes me away to a tropical paradise of grace and beauty.

A little laundry, a little cleaning, a few dishes, and a long look out the picture window at nature about to deliver springtime make it all worthwhile.

Put your work, business & studies in compartments in your head and leave room to smell the coffee, tea or Clamato juice (my fav!) before retiring for the day.

Breathe my friends, just breathe. Thank you all.

Love you,
Rosey

Bankruptcy 101:

You are Not Your Credit Score

Question: What is your credit score and why do the lenders make such a big deal about it? How will it affect me in these times?

Answer: Back in the 1950's a company called the Fair Isaac Corp. (FICO) developed a formula which was marketed as a way for lenders to realistically evaluate their risk with regard to lending to a specific person. FICO assigned mathematical quantities to patterns of behavior (like how often one pays late, whether they have unsatisfied legal judgments, etc.) and computes those quantities into a numerical risk factor which is known as our "credit rating."

FICO sells people's credit ratings to lenders based on their FICO formula which is a trade secret and legally protected.

There are other companies like Equifax, Transunion, and TRW. In my mind, these companies' secrecy causes me to question their integrity and the efficacy of their formulas. FICO should willingly disclose the science behind their mathematical formula so it can be challenged and discussed. It only seems fair that a rating factor which affects so many people's lives, whether it be for getting credit, a job, security clearance or the trust of another person, should be open to investigation. How do we really know its not complete voodoo?

There is a widely held belief that FICO and the entire individual credit rating system was developed by the elite to keep the middle class in their place. "Their place" is presumably in a constant state of fear over their financial rating willing to pay the banks any interest rate or penalty without question.

In our bankruptcy practice, we spend a large portion of our time helping people get back on financial track. I see people regularly who enter my office in a state of hopelessness and are healthy, happy, laughing and spirited six months down the line. Bankruptcy stays on your credit for ten years. But my response to that is "So what?" Anybody who really wants to get credit and buy another house can do it in three years or better. Even with a very low credit rating. They will have to be creative nowadays. But that is a topic for a different day. So, the focus should not be on your credit rating, but on your ability to pay back a specific amount of a loan within a specific period of time. I tell our bankruptcy clients: "yes, try to get a loan you can afford as soon as possible and pay it back early.

This is the beginning of your life of financial responsibility."

The "fresh start" that one can receive, often times, through bankruptcy is extremely valuable in terms of peace of mind and freedom from stress. Do not put yourself or your family through unnecessary mental hardship. If you think bankruptcy can help, there is only one way to find out. Schedule a free consultation. Often times, we can do the consultation over the phone. The bottom line is that a bankruptcy will not make most people's credit rating much worse than it was already. And it is a new start for your credit rating also.

The American Rescue Plan

On Thursday, March 11th, the American Rescue Plan was signed into law. This bill which is a COVID relief measure includes an expansion of the Affordable Care Act and more. Here are a few highlights of the plan.

• If you are currently receiving subsidies you may qualify for larger subsidies.

• If you have a marketplace plan and are not receiving a subsidy due to higher income you may now qualify for a subsidy.

• If you received unemployment income in 2021 you are eligible for a cost-sharing plan and subsidy.

Laketrans Offering Free Transportation to Get Vaccine at CSU Vaccination Site & Local Appointments

Laketrans is providing free, accessible transportation to any resident in need of a ride to a COVID-19 vaccination appointment in Lake County or to the mass vaccination site at the Cleveland State University Wolstein Center that operates through early May.

“Our job is to give residents access to what they need,” shared Laketrans CEO Ben Capelle. “Transit is a means to make sure there is equal access for everyone to be vaccinated, or really to get anywhere, and we’re happy to do our role in making sure all residents can get to a vaccination site.”

Appointments in Lake County

Lake County residents can use Laketrans’ local route buses or door-to-door Dial-a-Ride service.

For Laketrans’ door-to-door Dial-a-Ride service, customers must schedule a reservation by calling 440-354-6100. Reservations for Dial-a-Ride can be made a minimum of one day in advance and up to 12 days prior to an appointment.

If a vaccination appointment is at a drive-thru site, Laketrans customers will remain on the bus for the entire trip. Laketrans will transport residents through the entire vaccine process and return them home safely.

Residents who prefer to take Laketrans’ Local Routes 1-9 can call Laketrans Customer Service at 440-354-6100 and request four bus passes be added to their EZfare account or mailed to them.

Appointments at CSU Wolstein Center vaccination site

Laketrans is providing free transportation to Cleveland State University’s Wolstein Center mass vaccination distribution Monday-Friday between 8:15 a.m. and 6:30 p.m. from Laketrans’ new Frank J. Polivka Transit Center at Lakeland Community College starting on Wednesday, March 17. The last daily shuttle departure to Cleveland is 4:15 p.m.

Laketrans Local Routes 1, 2, 3, 6, 8, and 9 can get you to the Laketrans Transit Center at Lakeland Community College. From there, you can take our special Vaccination Shuttle service to Cleveland. Shuttle service will depart every 30 minutes from 8:15 a.m. to 4:15 p.m. Free parking is available at the Transit Center, located at 7601 Clocktower Drive, Kirtland, OH 44094.

Once you arrive in Cleveland, Laketrans will layover at RTA’s Stephanie Tubbs Jones Transit Center that is located next to the vaccination site. From the Transit Center, you will cross E.21st Street to the CSU Wolstein Center.

A detailed Vaccination Shuttle schedule and map is available at Laketrans’ website.

Laketrans plans to operate the special shuttle service throughout the duration of the eight-week vaccination program. This service is being provided free of charge, supported by the ODOT Rides for Community Immunity program and FEMA.

Celebrating Our Strengths

Our strength is providing a service that helps our clients and their families.

Sometimes we get so caught up in caring for others we forget ourselves. And, in doing so we forget to honor our life and our loving relationship.

What are our strengths? And, what does that mean to you?

Longevity with our caregivers means your loved one gets the best of care—they are in the hands of committed and experienced caregivers.

Mandatory special training each month means your loved one gets the most up to date care—their needs are met.

Special memory care activities means your loved one's mental capacity is extended—their quality of life continues.

Many of our caregivers have personally cared for their loved one and that means they have been there—they know and understand the challenges involved.

CPR trained and certified means you can feel confident your loved one will get the best of care if there is an emergency.

Mandatory virtual dementia tour means our caregivers can better care for clients with dementia.

Our service not only takes care of your loved one, but also helps you. You experience a sense of comfort knowing your loved one is in good hands. This peace of mind permits you to take a real break so you can relax, recharge and refocus. And, this allows balance so you can maintain your best self and a relationship.

We don't think we can afford a break, while the truth is, if we don't take a respite it will break us.

What if you could take a break and refocus, and renew the joy you get from caring for your loved one? It could mean listening to understand more, having more patience and stopping the internal conflicts and doubts.

It means looking into the eyes of a loved one and seeing love reflected back.

We want to value and celebrate our relationships, strive to be our best—a family that supports one another in good times and bad times.

5 REASONS YOU SHOULD CALL

- Your loved one:
- is able to stay in their home

Cosmetic Laser Medi-Spa & More

Cosmetic Laser Medi-Spa & More has been providing laser and other cosmetic services for over 15 years. Our staff of Medical Directors, Cosmetic Therapists, and Nurses are licensed medical professionals with years of experience in Botox, Juvederm, laser hair removal, and mole and spider vein removal. Our Estheticians and Massage Therapists can also help you relax and rejuvenate your skin, body, and mood!

Our goal is to offer services affordable to the average person because we all deserve to invest in ourselves but rarely make it a priority. Whether you're looking for an outpatient cosmetic procedure or a self-care pick me up, we've got the service for you!

We pride ourselves in our deep knowledge of skin, lasers, and how energy all interact. Laser and electrology are our primary focus as Cosmetic Therapists are the expert health care professional in permanent hair removal. We also guide you through the expectations and recommend which treatments or combination of that would provide your desired outcome. Lasers can be used on dark hair to reduce or remove growth on large surface areas. Laser hair removal typically requires 8-14 treatments at 4-8 week intervals. Electrolysis works on all hair types and can clean up any hairs the laser is not able to do such as white, grey or blonde hairs. Since this treats one hair at a time it typically requires regular visits for 1-2 years. We are a LGBT friendly business and come highly recommended from the Transgender community and Dr. Cecile Ferrando's team at the Cleveland Clinic Transgender Surgery & Medicine program.

Learn more about the standard cosmetic procedures performed at Cosmetic Laser Medi spa & More under the guidance of our Medical Directors, Dr. R. Salamon and Dr. B.J. Sidari. Our most popular Medical Director service is Botox and it is a safe cosmetic procedure when administered by a well-trained doctor to an appropriate candidate. Botox can reduce or eliminate wrinkles without surgery. Our Estheticians are experienced in facial peels to address concerns like fine wrinkles, uneven tones and improves texture with topical applications.

The skin consultation will also advise on the proper exfoliation methods best for your lifestyle for continued care. Microblading is a much-desired treatment because it is a manual technique of implanting pigment into the skin to create a manicured and full eyebrow effect. Unlike typical eyebrow tattoos, microblading tends to look extremely natural where you can hardly tell that it's not real hair.

We offer beach themed couple's massage rooms at both our locations. We specialize in structural integration massage, a technique that uses therapeutic deep tissue and relaxation elements to provide an enjoyable experience while addressing chronic muscular issues. Cosmetic Laser Medi-Spa & More has two convenient locations in Mentor and Chardon. We are in the historic Corning White House located on 8353 Mentor Ave. Mentor, OH 44060 and recently opened our second location on 133 Main Street Upper Chardon, OH 44024.

Time to Take Another Look at Affordable Care Coverage

In years past, once the Affordable Care Act Open Enrollment Period ended in December, folks would have to wait to sign up for a Health Insurance Marketplace® plan until the following November unless they qualified for a Special Enrollment Period. This year is different.

The ACA window recently reopened, providing a lifeline to affordable comprehensive health insurance coverage to those without it. The Market Place will accept new applications for ACA plans through May 15, 2021. It is one of a series of steps that experts say could provide access to health plans for millions of uninsured Americans.

In addition, the recently passed coronavirus relief plan contains a number of provisions to make coverage more affordable. Most people who are insured through the ACA will receive additional premium subsidies under the new law. That is because Congress is changing the way subsidies are calculated and are lowering — across the board — how much consumers are expected to pay, based on their annual income. An example provided by a Kaiser Family Foundation analysis indicates premiums would drop by around 50% to 80% depending on the plan for a 60-year-old with a $55,000 income. The people who will benefit the most are those who make just over the poverty level because their premium costs will go down to as low as $0, according to several estimates.

According to estimates by the Kaiser Family Foundation, approximately 2 to 3 million workers lost employee-based health plans between March and September 2020. Even before the pandemic, roughly 30 million Americans were without coverage. Unfortunately, many who could best use this type of insurance were not familiar with the enrollment process, did not know they qualified for subsidies, or missed the deadline in December to enroll. The additional Open Enrollment period gives them an opportunity to get health care coverage for themselves and their families.

To learn if you qualify or to enroll in an Affordable Care Plan, please contact me at 440-255-5700 or email me at Lmutsko@mutskoinsurance.com.

4 Reasons Why You Should Update Your Home's Water Treatment Equipment

By Benjamin Franklin Plumbing & DeBord's One Hour Heating & Air Conditioning® of Chardon, Ohio.

1. Save Water and Salt with a High Efficiency Water Softener

Visit any appliance store and most of the products will tout high efficiency, meaning they use less water and energy to get the job done. High efficiency appliances require highly efficient water, which is why water softeners have become a necessity for many homes. Water-using appliances run better and last longer with soft water.

2. Get a Water Softener with Wireless Notifications

The emergence of the Internet of Things (IoT) means more of the appliances in your home are connected to the cloud. Water softeners are included in the exciting trend of smart appliances!

Water-Right's Wripli™ technology wirelessly relays information from select Evolve® and WaterCare® models to your mobile device and to the local water treatment expert who you rely on to service your system.

The Wripli™ smartphone app for homeowners (also available on the iTunes app store) can be set to provide mobile alerts, letting you know when you need to refill water softener salt while providing system status and service reminders. You can even monitor how much water is running through your home in real-time or turn on "Vacation Mode" from anywhere.

With Wripli™, you will be much less likely to forget about your water softener. Instead, it becomes a smart appliance, giving you valuable insights and customizable control.

3. Stay Ahead of Changes in Water Quality

For people living in rural areas, where groundwater is pumped from a private well, it is important to understand that the quality of your water will change over time.

The water treatment solution installed several years ago may not be the right setup for what is in your water today. That is one reason why you need to have well water tested on a yearly basis.

A water softener is meant to remove hard minerals, specifically, calcium and magnesium. However, there are other elements and contaminants dissolved in groundwater, which may require additional filtration or the application of specialized water treatment media.

For example, high iron can be a common water problem in rural homes, causing unsightly staining and a metallic taste. Sulfur in your water may cause an unpleasant rotten egg smell. Both issues often require additional treatment beyond a basic water softener to improve the water's quality.

Some people take the DIY approach to installing water treatment. That could be a mistake because residential water treatment involves more than hooking up water lines. Every home's water quality is different and customized solutions are needed for the desired results.

4. Address Emerging Contamination Concerns

While not much about municipal water quality has changed over the years, people are starting to open their eyes to the ways in-home treatment can solve problems and give families peace of mind.

That may include concerns about the presence of lead in drinking water due to aging infrastructure in many cities. Or it could be the existence of pharmaceuticals in water. Some homeowners would prefer to avoid fluoride in drinking water. The use of chloramines as a disinfectant in municipal water is another topic of discussion. People using well water may have concerns about contamination from agricultural runoff.

In many cases, a reverse osmosis drinking water system will remove or reduce the majority of potentially harmful contaminants. Some homeowners take additional safety precautions and have whole home systems installed, including those specifically designed to address lead contamination.

Does Your Water Treatment Need an Upgrade?

Maybe you are uncertain how old your water softener is or whether it is doing an effective job. If you recently moved into a new home, you may want to learn more about what your water quality and how it could be improved.

Spring Has Arrived!

Spring has arrived and it's time to make your lawncare and landscape management plans.

As the temperature warms we can all get out and start on our favorite spring activities. If your favorite way to cure cabin fever is to do yard work, here are a few tips to help your yard look its best.

1. Get any remaining leaves off your lawn and beds.

2. Get your mower tuned up and sharpened! Hopefully you've already done this, as shops can get quite backed up this time of year.

3. PLAN AHEAD! I can't stress the importance of this enough. If you are thinking of making major changes or a complete do-over, now is a good time to start shopping for professional help- we can even get some of the demolition and prep work in. Everyone wants to be the first one on the list, but the reality is, back logs can build up quickly.

4. Mow grass before it gets too tall. You should be removing 1/4 - 1/3 of the leaf blade with each cutting. Typically 1/2" - 1." Remove excess grass clippings, if necessary.

5. Late March through mid-April is the time to get crabgrass control down. Be sure your coverage is thorough and at proper rates. If in doubt, hire professional help. The same goes for all chemical and fertilizer treatments. Grasshoppers founder has been ODA licensed since 1979 and still personally makes and oversees all chemical and fertilizer applications.

If you would rather cure your cabin fever by golfing, fishing, boating, hiking, or just kicking back and relaxing- you could leave the yard work to us. That's why we are here. Grasshoppers Groundskeeping was started in 1983 and has been providing quality, professional service to the tri-county area ever since. Whether you want to wash your hands of yard work completely, need help with one or two tasks, install enhancements, or start over completely, we can help. Call today (440) 257-4349.

Steve Douglas the owner of Mentor Window was asked about how they continue having such success in the home improvement industry. We won't just hire anyone to catch up if we are backed up a bit, quality is at the top of our list when it comes to workmanship. MUSTY ODORS...

Caused by MOLD

- Mold inspection and testing
- Professional mold cleaning services
- Remodeling services
- Mold prevention
- Air quality testing

(Inspection • Clean /Remove• Remodeling)

There's More to Mold Than Just the Spore!

Mold can emit a fungal gas! When particular molds colonize and they progress through their life cycle they emit a gas (musty smell). As the reservoir of fungus grows to several billion spores in the colony, our noses detect the smell of these fungal gases.

When a closed indoor environment continues to fill with the mycotoxic gases, they can become a health risk. The affect it has on the human body is dependent on three variables. Our individual immune systems, the type of spore and the volume of fungal gas, determines the impact on our bodies.

Additionally, the longer the exposure to these gases, the greater the likely hood we will develop a sensitivity. Much like other environmental allergens we are exposed to, the longer the exposure, the greater the chance our bodies will have an adverse reaction.

Some health effects include, headaches, shortness of breath, dizziness, lethargy, fever, and digestive problems. More severe reactions are hypersensitivity, and asthma symptoms. Although rare, certain Aspergillus species release aflatoxins that are carcinogenic.

There are many things in life we cannot control, but exposure to fungal gases is not one of them. With a little effort, we can reduce or eliminate this health hazard by using a disinfectant or removing the affected material. In some instances, it may be necessary to seek a professional opinion or get professional help.

Gregory L. Drenik CIE (Certified Indoor Environmentalist) Mr. Drenik is the president of Monarch Group, LLC. He has performed thousands of mold tests over the last 20 years & completed over 3,000 mold remediation projects (440) 537-4024.
