PUBLIC COMMENT

None

ELECTED/APPOINTED OFFICIALS

Addam Holder was present to update council on small claims filed for fire calls.

Clerk Wright announced the upcoming Spring Fling carnival event, May 12-14th at the city park.

Supt. Racey informed council he had met with IDOT concerning the possibility of the city moving sewer lines for upcoming construction at the intersection of 146 East, Old Metropolis Road and Redbud Road.

Alderman Moore mentioned forming a committee to begin planning the October fall fest event. Alderman Hill and Alderman Tuey volunteered to be a part of the committee with Moore.

Mayor Penrod reported that following the spring cleanup, Chief Miller was working on serving notices to residents with yards in violation of the city nuisance ordinance. Penrod and council discussed a bank owned property on North 5th Street that was up for tax sale in August.

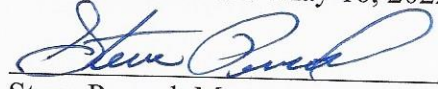

Penrod informed council of a 90/10 grant opportunity through Delta Regional Authority. Penrod discussed using the grant to upgrade Redbud Road to a heavy grade road for increased traffic to businesses in the industrial park. Penrod said he would meet with the city engineer to get a cost estimate of the project.

Penrod said he met with The P3 Group, an economic development group out of Memphis that designs, builds, and finances housing. Locations in the city were discussed for possible future housing development.

As there was no further business to discuss, Alderman Racey made a motion to adjourn. Seconded by Alderman Owen. Mayor Penrod adjourned the meeting at 7:15 p.m.
