

I have been going out with someone for a few weeks. That person does not get along with my friends and going out all together is PAINFUL! What should I do?

My best friend just fell in LOVE. I'm happy for her, but kind of mad because she never wants to spend any time with me anymore.

What should I do?

Someone keeps asking me out but I am not interested.

What should I do?

My best friend is very flirty. She knows I have a crush on someone but she keeps flirting with my crush anyway.

What should I do?

All of my friends have romantic relationships but I don't.

What should I do?

I broke up with someone last year. We are friends now. But now my best friend wants to date my ex. That feels wrong to me.

What should I do?

My best friend's romantic partner just asked me out.

What should I do?

Sometimes my best friend's boyfriend gets really drunk at parties. A couple of times he hit her when he was drunk. He is really nice when he's not drunk.

What should I do?
