

MARTHA KOROLEWSKI

1904 - 1993

Martha L. Korolewski, 89, lifelong resident of Dwight Township near Kinds, passed away Tuesday, Sept. 7 at Four Seasons Health Care Center in Bad Axe.

She was born June 23, 1904 in Dwight Township, daughter of the late Martin and Josephine (Butternick) Inda. She married Joseph C. Korolewski on Nov. 23, 1925 at St. Mary's Catholic Church of Dwight Township. He preceded her in death on Dec. 22, 1974.

Mrs. Korolewski was a parishioner of St. Mary's Catholic Church and a charter member of the Holy Rosary Society.

She attended the Morrison Rural School. She farmed with her parents in Dwight Township and later with her husband. She also was employed with her husband as an office manager at the Secretary of State office in Bad Axe for 12 years, retiring in 1972.

She was very active in church events and was considered to be one of the oldest living parishioners. She enjoyed crocheting, bingo and gardening. She was a member of the Kinds Senior Citizens Club.

Surviving are one daughter, Mrs. Charles (Grace) Wlanczek and one son, Dewey Korolewski, both of Kinds; one granddaughter; one great-granddaughter and several nieces and nephews.

She was preceded in death by one son, Edmund Korolewski; four sisters, Mary Ignash, Blanche Pearson, Frances Lapsar and Gertrude Mousseau and three brothers, Tony, Stanley and Frank Inda.

Funeral services were conducted on Friday, Sept. 10 at St. Mary's Catholic Church of Dwight Township. The Rev. Kevin Kachary and other priests
