

2020-21 Volunteer Awards

Volunteer Awards: Presented to PTA Volunteers

Describe the nominee's PTA service for this year, citing specific examples. You may refer to the nominee by name, but do not mention your school's name. The nominee should uphold PTA objectives and standards, while supporting involvement from parents and teachers in his/her school's PTA program. This award is presented to a volunteer for outstanding service to students, families and teachers through a PTA.

Corina C. Hipps Outstanding Elementary School PTA Volunteer Award

In memory of Corina C. Hipps and her many years of dedication, this award honors her work. One elementary winner will be awarded in this category.

Harry F. Underwood Outstanding Middle School PTA Volunteer Award

In memory of Harry F. Underwood and his years served as PTA President of Lincoln Junior High, this award honors his work. One middle school winner will be awarded in this category.

A Laurin Welborn Outstanding High School PTA Volunteer Award

In honor of A. Laurin Welborn and his long and dedicated service on the High Point Board of Education from 1965-1993, this award honors many years of dedicated service. One high school winner will be awarded in this category.