

Hill, Lee D.

Lee Doreen Hill, known as Snow Hill, 63, of Bad Axe passed away on Feb. 3, 2008 at her home following an extended illness.

She was born on Oct. 30, 1944 in Detroit, daughter of Lee Bernard and Doreen (Gunn) Clettenberg.

Snow was a member of the Ladies Auxiliary to the Veterans of Foreign Wars where she received the Meritorious and Distinguished Service Awards. She also received the Civilian Commendation Award from the Waterford Township Police Department for her assistance in the apprehension of a criminal subject in 1994.

She worked for various employers, including the Twin Beach Country Club in West Bloomfield, H&R Block in Pontiac, the Rolling Stove Catering Company, and as a manager at the American Speedy Printing Center of Waterford. She was also a member at Windover. Snow is now a rainbow in the clouds.

She is survived by her mother, Doreen Tankus of Maryland; one daughter, Dawn-Marie (Steve) Samara of Canton; one sister, Christine Tankus of California; two brothers, Yale and Nelson Tankus of Maryland; three grandchildren; and four great-grandchildren; her aunt, Thais of Warren; her uncle, Donnie (Jean) Gunn of Utah; her cousin, Shelly (Roger) Johnson of Jackson; close relatives, Paulette and Kenny King, and Tim and Barb Marshall; her special friends, Susie and Mary. Cremation has taken place at Sunset Valley Crematory in Bay City. Arrangements by the Kaufman Funeral Home in Bad Axe.
