

B. A. Schulz was born and baptized in Milwaukee, Wisconsin. She was a Lutheran School teacher in Milwaukee, Wisconsin and Lannon, Wisconsin before moving to Europe. As a resident of Germany for four years, she had time to study the life of Luther and visit the many cities where he lived, studied, and preached. She currently lives with her husband on their ranch in the Ozarks of Missouri.

