MESSENGER

MAY 2016

But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you. Matthew 6:33

Campbell's Corner

Greetings to all our Family and Friends,

Let me be the first to say Happy Mother's Day, to all Mother's in the Mangohick Baptist Church. A Mother's Love is very special and it means so much to have a loving and caring Mother therefore we salute all Mother's in the Church. I encourage everyone to express their love and appreciation for their Mother at all times.

We have had a very blessed 1st Quarter of 2016 and we would like to thank all the ministry leaders for their due diligence and labor of love while serving in ministry. May God continue to bless your ministry efforts' in all that you do for the Church, and the Kingdom.

We are an active church and the pace is increasing. We have a lot of activities still planned and scheduled for 2016. I encourage you to stay connected whereby you will be abreast of when ministry activities are occurring. Therefore continue to be steadfast and unmovable in your ministry responsibilities and in what you are doing for the Church and our Lord.

We are looking forward to our Spring Revival in a few weeks and we ask that you give support by attending all three nights. We ask that you plan accordingly to attend our Ministry Outreach during the month of May. I encourage each of you for as much as you can to lend your support to our upcoming Ministry Outreaches.

Remember that what you see determines what you feel. Therefore, put little signs on your refrigerator, bathroom mirror and bulletin boards to stir your faith. God instructed the children of Israel to put up His Words as signs before their eyes on the door posts of their homes to remind themselves of His Words.

Lastly, as always continue to keep and pray for our sick and shut-in members.

Pastor and First Lady Campbell

~ THE MONTH OF MAY ~

Beauty from Ashes: Redeeming Your Broken Moments No two human beings are exactly alike.

Each of us has a unique personality, background, life experience, and even DNA. But we all share something in common: We've all made mistakes and we've all failed.

Whether it's a speeding ticket, a bad business decision, or a failed marriage, we all know the pain of regrets and hurts. We often struggle with the consequences of our actions, feeling burned and abandoned in a pile of ashes after everything went up in flames.

Yet, in these broken moments, Jesus comes to us with tenderness and grace, offering to do something beautiful in us and through us, for His glory and the good of others. Christ extends forgiveness for our sins. He offers mercy in the midst of our mess.

Jesus has come to give us "a crown of beauty instead of ashes." (Isa. 61:3). This study looks at the lives of six people from Scripture whose actions were wrong, but in spite of their families, they experienced God's redemption.

A crown of beauty instead of ashes.

May 1, 2016 – Redeemed From a Critical Spirit

The Passage: Numbers 12:1-11, 13-15

The Point: A critical spirit damages our lives

May 8, 2016 – Redeemed From Crippling Doubt

The Passage: Luke 1:11-20, 63-65

The Point: God's Word can be fully trusted

May 15, 2016 – Redeemed From Devastating Failure

The Passage: Luke 22:54-62; Acts 4:8-13

The Point: God can redeem us from even our worst failures

May 22, 2016 – Redeemed From an Unbelieving Past

The Passage: Acts 26:9-20

The Point: Jesus can transform even the most hostile opponent into a faithful believer

SEIZE THE DAY: A CALL TO MISSIONS

Carpe Diem

Seize the Day. Because opportunity knocks but once. We have myriad ways to challenge ourselves when considering retirement opportunities, major purchases, business ventures, or financial investments. Those kinds of ventures and investments can be risky - - even scary. What if I didn't like retirement as much as I thought I would? What if the market goes bust? What if I lose everything?

I am the last person to give you financial advice, but one investment is definitely worth making. You may not see an immediate "payoff", but it will have an incredible impact on your life nonetheless. And on the lives of others. Invest in yourself in missions!

Many in our world still have never heard the good news of Jesus Christ, but we can use the opportunities and resources available to tell that good news. God's heart and mission is that all people everywhere know him, and the mission He has given us is no less. This study is a call to missions. It is a call to 'seize the day'.

May 27, 2016 – Seize the Day: A Call to Missions

The Passage: Acts 8:26-35

The Point: Take your place in God's mission to the nations.
