

RSAI ANNUAL MEETING

CHARTING THE 2020 SESSION

Rural School Advocates of Iowa (RSAI) invites you to attend the upcoming Annual Meeting where members will chart the advocacy course for the upcoming legislative session and adopt the priorities that are most critical to rural schools and students.

Non-RSAI members interested in learning more about the organization and its legislative platform are welcome to attend, engage in conversation, and observe the process. The meeting is free and includes a working dinner. Join us and lend your voice at this important meeting.
