

Aurora Township Democrats celebrate county 'blue wave'

Aurora Township Democrats celebrated Kane County's "blue wave" in recent elections with a cookout and election-sign collection Sunday, Nov. 8, at 591 Sullivan Rd. in Aurora.

Attendees included Kane County board member and newly elected circuit clerk Theresa Barreiro. Democrat Barreiro defeated incumbent Republican Tom Hartwell.

Hundreds of election signs were collected for disposal at the socially distanced event.

PHOTO (top): Aurora Township Democrats collect hundreds of election signs Sunday, Nov. 8, at a celebration of Kane County's "blue wave" in recent elections. The event at 591 Sullivan Rd. in Aurora featured a cookout. (Al Benson photo)
--END--

PHOTO (bottom): Kane County board member and newly elected circuit clerk Theresa Barreiro, left, chats with a visitor at Aurora Township Democrats' celebration of county election results and election-sign collection Sunday, Nov. 8, at 591 W. Sullivan Rd. in Aurora. Democrat Barreiro defeated incumbent Republican Tom Hartwell. (Al Benson photo)

