Important information to know regarding tech week Rehearsal Schedules:

Please be patient with the running of all rehearsals. This is NOT an exact time line and is always subject to change as we set lighting, sound and spacing to make sure the show runs as smooth as possible. Times are therefore only given as a general guide! We will attempt to keep as close to this as possible. Once a dancer is done rehearsing all his/her parts, they will be released to go from the Artistic Director. Not all cast will be required to stay the entire time. Thank you in advance for your understanding!

Backstage & Room Monitor Volunteers Important Info: Please be advised, if you are a volunteer who will be working backstage or as a room monitor, you are required to attend both technical and dress rehearsals to be sure you know exactly what your responsibility is AND so that the dancers know who they should go to for help with their costumes. If you cannot commit to both rehearsals, then please request to be moved into another volunteer position or discuss further with Andrea Morris prior to going to the theater.

IMPORTANT costume information! Your dancer is not allowed to eat or play in costume. IYDT's costumes are a significant financial investment and should be treated as such. We also have several dancers with severe food allergies. If your dancer has a food allergy, please inform the volunteers who are supervising your dancer each day of the performances. As a general precaution, please refrain from sending your dancer in with any kind of nuts as a snack. Instead we ask that you provide healthy, nut free, snack items like pretzels, grapes, fish crackers etc. ONLY water may be brought into the dressing rooms as a beverage for the dancers.

Dressing room assignments: (Subject to change—Look for the signs at the theater)

- Pre-Ballet, Ballet 1-5 will use the Drama Room and Choir Room (located just off the stage/dock area)
- Boys Ballet 3-Senior will use the lower level small dressing room (between Adult & Senior room located below the stage)
- All Male Guest Artists & Adult Men dancers will use the smaller, lower level dressing room (located below the stage)
- Senior Level Dancers, Mother Stahlbaum and Nanny will use the large, lower level dressing room

Saturday Performance Note: Right after the 1:00 pm performance IYDT will be hosting Clara's Dance Party! This is a fundraiser event for IYDT. Tickets are available at the office and at the front of house. Cost is $10.00 to attend and tickets are limited.

Saturday Performance Special Attention: We have several hours this year between shows. Please note that the volunteers who chaperone backstage may not be the same from show to show and are not available in between shows. YOU MUST make prior arrangements on Saturday for your child's supervision between the shows. You may come get your child and have a bite to eat or team up with another parent to alternate supervision of your dancer(s) between shows. IYDT will not be responsible for supervising children between performances!!
