

NANNETTE'S BOUTIQUE MOVES TO NEW LOCATION IN SUGAR GROVE

— Sandy Conrad,
sconrad@fvshopper.com

After several years in Yorkville, Nannette Elliott has moved her fabulous shop to Sugar Grove at the far west end of a strip center at the corner of Route 47 & Cross Street. During the past year, the widening of 47 in Yorkville cost her a lot of foot traffic which made the decision to move to her home town much easier. Fortunately, she says her regular customers have traveled north and new ones have discovered the shop at 50 Cross Street (note new phone number, 630/466-1200).

Amazingly, all of the furniture and fixtures that were in the several individual rooms of the old house that was the home of her business in Yorkville since 2011 are in place and on display at the new location where most everything can be taken in at a single glance in the one large area.

Nannette's is called the Giving Boutique because her mission is to give back to worthy causes in the community; with this in mind, she donates ten percent of the store's sales to a not for profit organization or a local family or child in need, something which her customers greatly appreciate. She hopes to resume holding "Ladies Nights," times when a group can gather for after hours private shopping with the 10% donation designated to their favored cause.

She intends for her shop to incorporate "the elegance of Michigan Avenue with the feel of Mayberry! The elegance is enhanced by several beautiful chandeliers and glitzy mirrors along with well placed lighting. The gray and black décor adds to the overall effect as well.

The merchandise is a one of a kind collection of uncommon women's clothing and accessories from top quality brands that will not be found in other stores. Clothing lines occasionally include Eva Franco, White Crow, Miss Me Jeans, Liverpool, KDL, RYU and Elan, among others. Nannette does her research to find those very unique items that customers have come to expect in a range of sizes that can include extra small to extra large, from the very fancy to the comfortably casual.

Customers swear that the jewelry is "simply amazing." Recognizable brand names include Relica, Madonna & Child, Gypsy South, Harlow, Patricia Locke, Alex Evening, Cartise and Mariana (items made in Israel). If you see something you like, you should grab it because on your next shopping trip it most likely will be gone, not to be replaced.

While clothing and jewelry are the bulk of Nannette's merchandise, there is so much more! A new product line which she is very excited to introduce is Mona B leather and canvas wine bags and purses (check out the picture). She continues to carry a selection of sports branded apparel and many cute gifts for newborns, attractively displayed in a lovely white crib that was not in the old store. There is also some unusual home décor including a line of candles, picture frames, inspirational plaques and signs plus a rack of specialty cards... all for the explicit purpose of offering one stop shopping for that very special gift!

Store hours are Tuesday, Thursday and Friday, 10 AM to 5 PM, Wednesday, 11 AM to 5 PM and Saturday, 10 AM to 4 PM (closed Sunday and Monday).

What makes Nannette's Boutique truly special is Nannette herself. Always impeccably dressed, her personality and attention ensures each customer they are special and appreciated. She will always take care to spend whatever time is necessary to help them find just what they are looking for. In every hour the store is open, she is always there.

When you visit the shop, be sure to mention that you read about it in the Fox Valley News Shopper!