Top 10 World's Most Famous Paintings

Mona Lisa - Leonardo Da Vinci

Leonardo da Vinci worked on his masterpiece over a period of 20 years. He carried it with him everywhere. It has been stolen twice and now resides in the Louvre, Paris.

When the Mona Lisa visited America in the 1960s, it gained a prominence close to that of the then US president John F Kennedy. Is that not a smile of supreme satisfaction? Everyone will have a different opinion, and that is part of the attraction of the painting.

Watch for Another Painting Next Month!

An Amazing Fact about the Bible...
