

Minnesota Music Hall of Fame Inductee

Raymond Meidl

Inducted in 2001

Raymond H. Meidl. From New Ulm, Minnesota, Ray Meidl played violin and clarinet in the new Ulm High School Band. He was a member and directed the New Ulm Symphony Orchestra, he played with the Fenzel Band, and he performed with and directed the 25 Infantry Band, which was a unit of the Minnesota National Guard. After graduating from McPhail School of Music he enjoyed a long career as a music teacher and band director at Holy Trinity School. His career also included director of the New Ulm Municipal Band, director of the Celian Choir, and he was a partner in Brown and Meidl Music Store.

