Devotion for May

Jesus called out in a loud voice, "Lazarus, come out!"

John 11:43

Come Out!

Devotion based on John 11:43

People were amazed when Jesus spoke those powerful words, "Lazarus, come out." Even though he was dead and in the grave for four days, Lazarus responded to the Lord's call. On that day Jesus revealed his power as true God, as well as his power over death and the grave. It is this power which is a comfort and blessing for me.

One of the greatest fears I have is death. Whether it is the finality or the uncertainty, I try to rid myself of the thought. No matter how hard I try, the fear of death always holds me captive. My only hope to be free from fear is to look to Jesus. He gives me the assurance death will not hold me in its grip. Once I leave this world, I can have every confidence he will speak the same words he spoke to Lazarus, "Come out!"

It is this reassurance which allays my fears and calms my troubled heart. Through faith in Jesus as the Son of God and my Savior, I know he will never abandon me to the grave. I can live every day knowing death becomes a new beginning. At the end of this earthly life I will receive a new life with my Lord in heaven. Still, this is not the only reassurance I receive.

Through the powerful working of the gospel, Jesus also expresses his will, "Come out of this dark world and live in the newness of life." "Come out of sinful selfishness and live in selfless love." "Come out of the hopelessness of death and live with confident joy." Because of faith in what Jesus has done for me, I can come out of a life dominated by death's control. I can come out of a life subjected to Satan's dreadful tyranny. I can come out of a life of hopeless fear.

So much is mine for this life, and for the life to come, through faith in Jesus Christ. How blessed I am to hear my Savior's call, "Come out!"

Prayer:

O dearest Jesus, you have power over life and death. Come with your power to release me from death and the devil. Come with your power to give me new life and the hope of heaven. Amen.

April 2017 News from Twice is Nice:

What we do: Sometimes it's good to remind our friends and shoppers what we're all about. Twice Is Nice Resale provides significant assistance to Lakeside Lutheran High School and other ministries while offering good quality merchandise at great prices. What's even more amazing is that this is truly a labor of love, as all facets of the operation of our store, from clerks to donation managers, board of directors to maintenance – are 100% volunteer! The Lord continues to bless our efforts -- while our business has always been good, in first quarter 2017, sales were up another 12%!

Donations direly needed: Success in sales is truly a blessing, but it brings its own set of challenges. Twice is Nice sometimes struggles to keep the shelves full! Are you looking to spring clean? What do you have in your household that could be offered to us as donations? We're easy-to-find and open Mondays--Saturdays from 9-5 PM: just a minute east on the Hwy 18 exit off the 26 bypass at 907 W. Racine St., next to the Jefferson Piggly Wiggly. We accept items in the back of the building from 9 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. any day we're open. The only items we cannot accept are console pianos/stereos/sewing machines, mattresses/box springs, large CRT TVs, organs and paint. Do you need help with transporting your donations? TiN does not have regular pick up service, but we would like to hear from you if getting items to the store is all that's holding you back. Please call the store at 920-674-6868 -- if there's a way we can work something out, we sure would like the opportunity!

Wait for the Lord; be strong and take heart and wait for the Lord.

Psalm 27:14

Greetings from the warm heart of Africa,

Is patience one of your virtues? Maybe you're like me and patience is on your list of areas in need of improvement. Waiting in line (or queue as we say here) is a part of life in Malawi, just like it is everywhere else. I have noticed during the last four months, though, that some of the waiting is different than everywhere else I have ever lived and traveled.

Never before have I waited a month to find yogurt or mozzarella cheese in the grocery store. Never before have I traveled to church wondering if there will be power so that we'll have lights and piano accompaniment to our singing. Never before have I waited in gridlock city traffic because a young boy was having trouble keeping his goat herd to the side of the road.

While waiting of this sort can be comical once you get past the inconveniences, there is a lot of waiting in life that is anything but comical. Maybe you are waiting for a doctor's report. Maybe you're waiting for a better job opportunity or a relationship to improve. Here in Malawi, many people are waiting for the maize harvest and the temporary end of hungry season. Waiting. Waiting. Waiting.

There is a reason why we are told in the Psalm to be strong and wait. Losing patience and giving up is easy. Waiting for the Lord's guidance, intervention and healing takes strength. Rushing into action just for the sake of action is easy. Waiting to understand the situation and select the best course of action takes strength. Bickering is easy. Waiting to speak calmly and respectfully takes strength.

As Easter approaches, I like to remember John's account at the tomb of Jesus. Mary Magdalene stood weeping while she waited and didn't realize that Jesus was alive and right there with her. Until He called her by name, she had no idea just how near He was. Isn't that often the case with us? When we are tired of waiting for difficulties to improve, how often do we forget that Jesus has said He is always with us (Matthew 28:20)? In the midst of our trials and sufferings, do we echo Job and confess "I know that my Redeemer lives" (Job 19:25)? Why do we so easily forget that Jesus loves us every day the same and even calls us by our name (CW 432)?

Waiting for the Lord's timing and for His plan is challenging, but it's also for our good. Through the waiting, He draws us nearer to Himself, teaches us to trust Him, and reminds us that He alone is in control. We can take heart, because our waiting, no matter how difficult, is not in vain and the Lord Himself is right there with us providing the strength we need to carry on.

The Lord is risen! He is risen indeed! Happy Easter!

Your sister in Christ,

Amanda Artz, Clinic Administrator
Lutheran Mobile Clinic, Malawi

- R is for Righteousness
Taught to us each day.
And we should not forget
To always live this way.

The whole thing it spells

"Mother,"
The one we love so dear.
Whenever we are in trouble.
Mother is always near.
