Exalted Ruler Message

Wow! Summer is over. It has been a hot one. Did it go fast, or is it just me.

We had our last picnic on the back patio Labor Day. We had a great turnout. I want to thank all the volunteers. They did an awesome job serving over 160 meals. Knock on wood, the Lodge has been Covid free. I have not heard of a case by any of our members who come in on a regular basis, nor have we had any on the Hill, our visiting members.

Our next big event is the Charity Ball. See the Elks Tale for details.

If you haven't come in on Fridays and Saturdays, you have missed some good meals. The Officers are still serving 12 oz. steaks on the second Saturday of the month, and you have to try our breakfast meal the fourth Sunday of the month.

We have started the Bronco game potlucks at the Lodge. Come down and bring a dish and enjoy the game with your friends and members and cheer on the Broncos.

Charity Queen Nominee

My name is Cary Lopez, and it is an honor to be nominated for the 2021-2022 Charity Queen. I have been married to my husband Vince for 22 years, we have a 20-year-old son who is in his 3rd year of college, and I have a 35-year-old stepson who is married with 3 wonderful boys.

As my son went off to college, I stayed busy with PTA, still helping with the high school football, and my grandkids' activities. Then, in 2020 Vince started to volunteer in the Elks kitchen since we didn't have a cook anymore, and the next thing you know I was here every weekend prepping, cooking, cleaning up and I wasn't even a member yet. I finally became an Elks member in April 2021, immediately joined the House Committee, and was named Elk of the Month for April. I have been volunteering in the kitchen since Bingo started, most Friday and Saturday dinners, helped get the Sunday breakfast started, helping where I am needed at the picnics and whatever else comes along for an Elk to do.

Thank you for your consideration. Love your family and be kind to others.

Linda Berry, nominated for Charity Ball Queen. Linda stepped up to be the candidate for the Ritual Team contest. Linda volunteered to go through initiation with the new members being initiated.

Linda assisted John Berry, Loyal Knight, with the Fourth of July Picnic which was a great success.

Linda has volunteered at:

Bingo – selling bingo cards, offering and providing tea and water when members could not serve themselves, delivering food to tables on Bingo night, making salads.

Linda has served at:

Memorial Day Picnic/Barbecue

Father's Day Picnic/Barbecue

Linda has helped set up, serve and tear down after the Fourth of July Picnic and the Elks Picnic.

Great ambassador when explaining Elks to people in the community who are not Elk members.

On Lodge nights that are not initiation, Linda collects money for Clem Audin or Westy Relief.

Friendly to visitors at our Lodge and friendly to members.

Hi – I am Rhonda Overman

Thank you for nominating me for Charity Ball Queen. The first year I was a member of the Lodge, I was the candidate for the Ritual Team. I have also volunteered at the summer picnics, Rockies games for Elk and Pioneer functions, hoop shoots luncheon, funerals, Bingo dinners, Friday night dinners and Sunday morning breakfasts. I have also donated to various out reach programs.

Outside of the Elks, I collect hotel samples and take them to the Karlis Family Center. I believe that if you belong to the Elks, you should volunteer. There are so many volunteer opportunities. Find one and volunteer so that our Elks Club will thrive.
