FALL HARVEST FEST

Sunday, September 18, 2011

12:00-5:00 pm

Clark House Museum

Thanks to all of you who donated time and talent to the Ice Cream Social in July. Well, we need your help again for the Harvest fair and Rummage Sale to be held from 12-5 pm on Sunday, September 18, 2011.

Contributions of produce, preserves, and bakery (cookies, cakes, pies) are requested and can be brought a few days ahead or on the day of the event. Call Penny Williams, 691-2026, with questions or to volunteer.

Rummage sale items subject to the dos and don't listed below are needed. Please bring them to the Clark House any time up to the day of the sale. We would also like newspapers to wrap glassware, grocery plastic bags to carry purchases and brown bags for the bag sale from 4-5 pm. Call Judy Dimond, 367-2701, or Sarah Hintz, 691-3975, to ask questions or to help in this area.

We will also need to borrow at least 6 pop-up tents without sides to protect the rummage sale area in case of rain. Please call Helen Ackley, 691-9489, if you have any we could use.

RUMMAGE ITEMS WE CAN ACCEPT:

Bric-a-brac and knick knacks, specialty linens or bedding, Christmas or holiday decorations, antiques & vintage items, crafts, old books, small working kitchen appliances, dishes and kitchen items, home furnishings, artwork, decorative lawn art, small furniture items, vintage clothing, and decorative baskets.

WE CANNOT ACCEPT:

TVs and computers, food, cosmetics and perfume, clothes, large furniture, drapes, electronics, large appliances, and exercise equipment.

Archive Donations

Ron Guades - 42 old bottles taken from Pewaukee Lake (Beach Park area)

Judith Steele Haak - Dishes that belonged to the Wm. H. Steele family, all in excellent condition and a photo of W. H. Steele from the 1950s.

W. Clark Steele - Remington 22 gun that belonged to his Uncle Willard Steele and photographs of the Steele family.

Melanie Varin - 2 China dolls from the 1960s made by her grandmother and a handmade quilt made by Betty Anderson Todd circ 1930-1940.

Dennis and Kathy Sampson - baby chick incubator used in the Steele family and old snow shoes most likely used by Grandpa Steele.

Denny Hockwalt - A wide variety of small old tools including a bench vice, a level, drills, butchering hook, etc.

Thank you to all of our donors!

PAHS in the 4th of July Parade

The Pewaukee Area Historical Society entered a unit into the Pewaukee 4th of July parade put on by the Chamber of Commerce. Fun was had by all on this lovely day. Special thanks to Kathy Novack and Gordy Merz for putting together the group and the float! Also thanks to Orel Rooney for her painted Abe Lincoln - he was a great addition to the parade!

PAHS' Unsung Hero

The PAHS Board recognizes there are many volunteers that spend countless hours of their time helping to make the Society the great organization it is. In this newsletter, we would like to recognize and thank HELEN ACKLEY. Helen has spent many hours helping around the Clark House and this year she coordinated not only the Ice Cream Social, but also is coordinating the Harvest Fair! Helen also has spent countless hours working on the archives among many other things. We appreciate all of her hard work! Thank you Helen!

Generous Donations Lead To Successful Social

Featured in the August 4, 2011 Lake Country Reporter

To the editor,

Businesses and individuals in the Pewaukee area were extremely generous in donating supplies and raffle items to the ice-cream social held Sunday, July 17, at the Clark House Museum. Thanks. To show appreciation for past donations and artifacts, the barn in back was designated The Steele Family Exhibit Hall.

More than 50 volunteers made the whole event run smoothly and were much appreciated. Most important were the hardy people who endured the intense heat to attend and enjoyed themselves; kudos to all. I hope to see you all at the Harvest Fair and yard sale to be held Sunday, Sept. 18.

Helen Ackley, Pewaukee

Tours and Events

The Clark House sees many visitors throughout the year. Several groups request private tours and/or the ability to hold small events of their own at the Clark House. Sharon Strieter has been doing a wonderful job organizing these groups.

July 6, 2011: The Jackson Crossing Senior Living group visited

August 12, 2011: The Class of 1962 held a small reunion at the Clark House

August 18, 2011: Carol Smith Kettner held a small event. She had previously stopped to visit the museum and donated a box of old photos. Thank you Carol!

PAHS also attended a few local events to promote the Clark House Museum and Pewaukee Area Historical Society. Those include:

August 17, 2011: Set up a table at Waterfront Wednesday (music event on the beach)

August 20, 2011: Set up a table at the Antique and Classic Boat Show (on the beach)
