Call to Worship:

Come to Christ, people of God, taste the kindness of the Lord! He gives you every provision and fills you with good things. Come to Jesus, you people, and be built upon the cornerstone into a spiritual home where all may find rest for the evening and courage for the day to come. With joy let us give praise to God! Prayer: God of all creatures, this morning we are intoxicated by the sweetness of spring, exhilarated by the exuberance of plants: everything that sends down roots, reveals buds, and stretches to the light. God, turn our attention gently to the growth stirring within us, to a presence not simply captivating to our senses, but infinitely precious to our hearts. Christ is risen, walking the roads that we walk, facing our life shoulder to shoulder with us. Grant us the eyes of faith and trusting hearts. We thank you God of life for your love that fills us to overflowing day after day. (Diane Karay, para)

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. for thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. Amen.

Children's Time Rev. Amy

Scripture Reading: 2 Corinthians 6:1-9a

Since we work together with Jesus, then, we are begging you not to accept the grace of God in vain. For he says,

“At the acceptable time I have listened to you,
and helped you on the day of salvation.”

Behold, now is the acceptable time; behold, now is the day of salvation. We put no obstacle in any one's way, so that no fault may be found with our ministry, but as servants of God we commend ourselves in every way: through great endurance, in afflictions, hardships, calamities, beatings, imprisonments, and riots. We experienced hard work, sleepless nights, and hunger. We displayed purity, knowledge, patience, and generosity. We served with the Holy Spirit, genuine love, telling the truth, and God's power. We carried the weapons of righteousness in our right hand and our left hand. We were treated with honor and dishonor and with verbal abuse and good evaluation. We were seen as both fake and real, as unknown and well known, as dying – and look, we are alive!

Verses for Prayer : “O Spirit of the Living God” UMC Hymnal #539

1) O Spirit of the living God, thou light and fire divine, descend upon they church once more, and make it truly thine. Fill it with love and joy and power, with righteousness and peace; till Christ shall dwell in human hearts, and sin and sorrow cease.

3) Teach us to utter living words of truth which all may hear, the language all may understand when love speaks loud and clear; till every age and race and clime shall blend their creeds in one, and earth shall form one family by whom thy will is done. Amen
