FEATHERS IN THE WIND

I will admit to not having a Ph.D. or barely getting through high school physics, but I refuse to admit to being "qualified" for consideration or being labelled as the "Village Idiot."

There is a limit to my abilities especially when it comes to opening containers. I think that the marriage vows should have one more clause in them stating one of the couple be capable of opening things or operating machines.

One example that comes to mind are those items enshrined in plastic such as pill bottles, new toothbrushes, almost anything in the drug store, sharp knives, etc. Okay. I understand preventing theft, safety, and sanitation, but by the time I have broken finger nails, tried to gnaw through the plastic and Finally locating scissors (Charliemagne hides the scissors for fear of stabbing) I am quite literally sweating and mumbling words that would do a drunk sailor proud and send me to Satan's lair.

Upon getting the clear plastic off I get the second challenge on a pill bottle of the "child proof" lid. Luckily my prescription drugs allow me to by-pass that because of my arthritis, but not good old "Tylenol." I have developed all sorts of ways to open these bottles, but the best way, I find, is to get a CHILD to remove the lid.

Now comes the paper seal which I simply stab only to find that wad of cotton. By this time I NEED those pills and will swallow them without benefit of water if need be.

I dislike it when the computer or cell phone gives me problems so I deal with that by going to any person who "looks" reliable and BEG for help.

We won't even mention opening a jar or fixing flat tires. The way I figure it I can do other things these skilled people can't do and someday they just might need my help.

AMANA NEWS AND NOTES

Prelude Busy and Fun!

This Weekend there is More Fun as it's "Kids' Weekend"

Amana's Prelude to Christmas offered some new events and proved to be another big success with almost 6,000 visiting our Tannenbaum Forest.

This year the Amana Art's Guild Christmas Haus Tour included the Ruedy Communal Kitchen with the newly opened Ruedy home a star attraction. Adding to the gaiety was a communal supper Saturday night at the kitchen house featuring a menu like that served in communal Amana on Christmas eve – mashed potatoes, creamed chicken, side dishes and a special dessert. This delighted the folks who came especially for this event.

Another new twist was the appearance of Santa Claus at the High Amana Store. Visitors enjoyed seeing Santa in the store – seated just as he would have been – when Santa first made appearances at the store beginning about World War II.

The Amana Church's Christmas Bazaar and Cookie Walk busted their top record with well over $7,000 in sales. On-line, pre-ordering of cookie walk boxes and other treats, plus strong, early sales of an expanded Christmas Bazaar helped. This event supports the Amana Church's Sunday School, youth group and the Summer Vacation Bible Camp. Last year nearly 90 children attended Summer VBS. There is no charge for the week-long Bible amp, so funds raised during Prelude pay for all of the supplies, crafts, lesson plan packets, sheet music and food.

"It was a great weekend. It was fun to see what our volunteers created for sale, we had so much variety, and to have so many of our long time supporters and out of town friends stop by to shop," said Carmen Grimm, the church's bazaar co-chair.

Dana Jensen, Amana's Events and Social Media manager, reported to us, "We saw almost 6,000 people through the Forest over the weekend. Overall I would say it was an amazing success. Saturday was a little chilly but the cold can't stop Midwesterners from enjoying all the amazing things that the Amanas' have to offer during Christmas time. So far this is turning out to be our biggest Tannenbaum Forest yet, surpassing records set in 2019."

This weekend Santa Claus will be in the Tannenbaum Forest all weekend long. Santa will appear at the Festhalle on Friday Dec. 9 from 11 till 5 p.m.; Saturday from 10 a.m. – 7 p.m. and Sunday 11 – 4 p.m. On Sunday should the weather be conducive one of Santa's reindeer will be at the Forest from 1 – 4 p.m. Local residents with kids wishing to see Santa at the Festhalle might want to come early or stop by later in the day or evening.

Also this weekend kids can decorate their own holiday ornament at the High Amana General Store from 10 a.m. - 5 p.m. Also at the Indigo Room at the Hotel Millwright you may decorate your own sugar cookie, Saturday Dec. 10 from 3 to 5 p.m. And kids can join in a soda and cheese pairing event at Fire-side Winery in the Village on Main Street all weekend.

Don't Miss the Holiday Comedy at APAC "Every Christmas Story Ever Told"

Laughter, and the sheer joy of a Christmas musical comedy, is happening at the Amana Performing Arts Center this weekend as TKM Productions creates theatre magic with their very special production, "Every Christmas Story Ever Told (And Then Some)."

It will be at the Amana PAC (former OCTC theatre) Friday at 7:30 p.m.; Saturday at 7:30 p.m.; and Sunday at 3 p.m. Tickets are $20. Yes, you can purchase tickets at the door or go on line to one of the addresses below.

Daunted by the web? Simply call Deb Kennedy at 319-899-3799 to reserve your seats.

I cannot wait to see "Every Christmas Show Ever

Told (and then Some!) by Michael Carleton, James FitzGerald and John Alvarez.

Here's the premise. Unable to face yet another performance of the age-old Christmas classic, A Christmas Carol, three actors take huge creative license and zip through in rapid succession every Christmas folk tale, book, movie, play and carol you can think of weaving together the zaniest, wildest, holly jolly, holiday musical ever. Fast-paced fun in a tinsel-tangle explosion of pop culture, literature and movie lore, it's a must see for anyone who truly loves Christmas. Yes, it's appropriate for all but the younger kids.

OBITUARY

Constance "Connie" Pacenta Niggel, 89, died of an unexpected illness on her favorite holiday, Thanksgiving, November 24, 2022, at the Hospice room in the Marengo Hospital. She was at peace, surrounded by the family she loved so dearly. Connie was born in Shenandoah, PA, January 30, 1933 to Michael and Alberta Pacenta. She lived her life in Shenandoah, PA; Pittsburgh, PA; Kansas City, MO; Wilmington, NC; and finally South Amana, IA where she lived with her daughter and son-in-law.
All who knew her would describe her as one of the kindest and most caring people they knew. Being the loving wife and mother to her husband and their three children was her main purpose in life. Connie had a flair for hospitality, which gave her the occasion to cook for people and try new recipes (one of her favorite pastimes). She was outgoing and never failed to serve people, even when they weren't aware that they needed her help.
She lived her life guided by the principles of honesty, integrity, love, compassion, and mercy. She was a wonderful example to her family and friends and will be dearly missed. She leaves behind her daughter Linda (Les) Ackerman, daughter-in-law Tina (Michael) Niggel, her son Tim (Kim) Niggel, eight grandchildren, 15 great-grandchildren, and sister Mary Lou Grendell. Her family was the joy of her life. She was preceded in death by her beloved husband Bill, brother Michael, sister Diane, and oldest son Michael.
Connie had a heart for the hurting and handicapped. If you wish to make a donation in her memory, Camp Courageous of Iowa and Coastal Therapeutic Riding Program in Wilmington, NC are two of her favorite organizations.
The family would like to thank the entire staff at Compass Memorial Hospital for the love and care they showed her and her family in her last hours.
The pending memorial service will take place in North Carolina. Updates will be shared on Facebook once they are available.
